"BUTCHER GHOUL" CONFESSES — Smiling and clean-shaven, "Butcher Ghoul" Ed Gein, 51-year-old Plainfield, Wis., farmer, leaves the State Crime Laboratory in Madison in police custody on his way to Waukesha County Jail at Wautoma. Gein allegedly confessed murdering two women and dragging them through the woods to his "house of horrors." Gein's confession followed over 10 hours of questioning and lie tests.

Would Amend Laws If Necessary

Gore Pushes Nuclear Cooperation With Allies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.) said today he believes European readiness to use American nuclear weapons in wartime can be achieved without amending the Atomic Energy Act.

"I generally favor increased cooperation with our allies in this field and if an amendment to the law is regarded as necessary by the administration, I would give it serious and sympathetic consideration," Gore said in an interview.

"But as of now I know of no such need and none has been indicated to the Senate-House committee."

Gore's statement reflects, in part, the kind of opposition in Congress which some think might force some compromises in the administration's announced intention to seek a freer exchange of scientific atomic information with U. S. allies.

President Eisenhower has said he will ask Congress to lift some of the secrecy provisions of the Atomic Energy Act.

The proposal has drawn a mixed, and none too favorable, reaction from Senate-House Atomic Energy committee members, of whom Gore is one. Chairman Durham (D-NC), among others, has questioned the adequacy of security systems in nations which would get such secret information.

Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles appear determined to seek some lowering of the secrecy ban. But some members of Congress obviously are beginning to

Blue Cross Drops Mansfield Hospital

CLEVELAND (AP) — A dispute over the cost of caring for patients has resulted in Peoples Hospital of Mansfield being dropped by the Blue Cross organization here.

James A. Berne, associate director of the hospitalization plan here, said Wednesday a semi-annual audit of the Mansfield hospital's books showed a per diem cost about $5 lower than the amount charged.

But David J. Davies, vice president and manager of Peoples Hospital, said:

"Blue Cross just hasn't been paying enough."

Terminating the Blue Cross action, Davies said: "We just can't go on operating at a loss."

The hospital administrator said Peoples is "in the same position as a number of other hospitals. Blue Cross has just taken on more than it can handle."

He said Blue Cross apparently has decided to drop the hospital rather than increase its charges to policyholders.

The actual cost, said Davies, is $16.58 per day per patient. The Blue Cross audit determined the daily rates should be $13.64 under one arrangement or $13.78 under another, he said.

The hospital will not suffer financially, Davies said. About 27 per cent of the patients at the 110-bed hospital use the Blue Cross plan, he said.

Berne said it was the first time Blue Cross here has taken action in such a case since the program was started here in 1934. Blue Cross contracts cover 58 hospitals in northeastern Ohio.

Negley Man Hospitalized After Crash

One person was hurt and two were cited after three area traffic mishaps Wednesday.

Robert Taylor, 38, of Negley received a fractured skull, fractured ribs, multiple bruises and abrasions when his car went out of control and rolled over on Rt. 154, two miles east of Rogers, at 8:05 p.m.

He was admitted to Salem City Hospital where his condition today is listed as "fair."

Taylor will be cited for reckless driving when he recovers, the State Patrol said.

A second accident occurred at 8:10 p.m. when a car driven by James Gamble, 17, of Columbiana came over a rise in the road on Rt. 14, one mile east of Salem, and struck the rear end of a car driven by Andrew Suwak, 40, of Hickory, Pa., the patrolmen said.

Considerable damage was done to both cars, but no one was injured.

A third mishap occurred at 3:35 p.m. on Rt. 30, one mile west of Lisbon, when a car driven by Frank Surmacevz, 27, of Hanoverton, attempted to pass cars driven by Donald Fogg, 33, of RD 3, Salem, and Joseph McAllister, 22, of Hanoverton.

The Surmacevz auto struck Fogg's auto, knocking it into the McAllister vehicle. Only minor damage was reported to the three cars, patrolmen said.

Surmacevz was cited for passing without due signal.

Two Go On Trial For Alliance Killing

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Two men accused of taking part in a burglary during which Eldon Shoup, 25, of Alliance was shot to death go on trial for first degree murder here today.

The two are Alfred Calabrese, 37, of Cleveland, and Paul Perotti, 32, of Chardon. They are two of four men implicated by Paul Carpenter, 27, of Akron. Police said Carpenter confessed he fired bullets that killed Shoup and wounded Shoup's father Earl, 49.

Carpenter, who is not expected to be the state's chief witness, told police Arthur La Rich, 39, of Elyria also took part in the burglary. He said Ray Paone, 39, of Alliance provided information to the burglars.

All five are charged with night time burglary, and Carpenter and La Rich also are charged with first-degree murder.

Soviet Brushoff Of Arms Talks Angers Neutrals

UN Assembly Votes Smashing Approval Of West's Proposal

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Russia's brushoff of Western efforts to break the disarmament deadlock may have demonstrated her new ICBM Sputnik "position of strength." But it also put a severe strain on her friendship with many so-called neutral nations.

Delegates infer this from the lineup in the smashing 60-9 U.N. Assembly endorsement of the West's plan to increase the 12-nation Disarmament Commission to 25 members. Only the Soviet bloc voted against the proposal despite Russia's warning she would boycott the talks unless half the nations at the conference table were Communist or neutral.

The West had been confident of victory on the vote. But few had expected Syria and Egypt, who receive economic and military aid from Moscow, to vote for the plan. Nor had they anticipated support from such Asian neutrals as Ceylon and Indonesia, who usually show a marked preference for Soviet ideas.

A number of usually pro-Soviet delegations were deeply disturbed by Russia's ever-increasing demands during the East-West negotiations last week on enlarging the commission.

Yugoslav Communists, who played a key role in trying to bring the two sides together, became so annoyed by the Soviet tactics that they divorced themselves from the deal and quit the sponsor's list.

India, who originated the move to enlarge the commission, did not appreciate Russia's sudden rejection of the plan after the Indians had persuaded the West to go along with the compromise.

The Soviets also angered Austria and Finland, who chided them in the Assembly for placing their names on the Red list of commission candidates without telling them in advance.

Most delegates could not accept Russia's contention that half the

Mahoning Board Election Recount Asked By Oliver

The County Election Board today set for Tuesday at 8 p.m. a recount of the Nov. 5 election returns from five precincts in Columbiana County that are part of a school district that overlaps from Mahoning County.

The recount was requested by Edward Oliver of Sebring, one of two apparently defeated candidates for two-year terms on the board of education of the Mahoning Local School District.

He posted a $50 bond for a recount in the north precinct of Butler Township and the northeast, northwest, southeast and southwest precincts of Knox Township.

The two apparent winners in the two-county school district were Dale Schoeni of Beloit RD and Glenn Shreve of Damascus.

In the affected area of Columbiana County, the vote was: Schoeni, 976, Shreve, 903, George H. Davis of Sebring, 232, and Oliver, 197.

The recount will be made at the Columbiana County board's office in East Liverpool.

Probers To Subpoena Teamster Records

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate racket investigators said today they will subpoena convention election records of Teamsters locals in the union's Central Conference.

Robert F. Kennedy, chief counsel of the special Senate committee, said only a few locals in the conference headed by James R. Hoffa have complied voluntarily with a committee request for the information.

Kennedy told newsmen that over 75 per cent of the delegates on whom information has been received so far were elected in violation of the union's constitution.

The records, which Chairman McClellan (D-Ark.) asked by letter last month, deal with local union's selection of delegates to the convention which elected Hoffa president of the Teamsters.

The committee contends many of the delegates were chosen improperly. Similar charges have been made in a Federal District Court suit challenging Hoffa's election, and he has been barred from taking office pending outcome of the suit. Trial now is scheduled for Dec. 2.

STEVENSON TALKS WITH PINEAU — Adlai Stevenson, in his new role as a state department advisor, talks with French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau at the French Embassy in Washington Wednesday. Stevenson, Democratic presidential nominee in 1952 and 1956, was scheduled to fly to Chicago with Secretary of State Dulles.

Test Spurs Hope For Sightless

Device Enables Woman Blind 18 Years To 'See'

NEWARK, N. J. (AP) — "Oh, I can see the light."

It was in these words that a woman blind for 18 years described her reaction to a new electronic device, her surgeons said.

The woman, Betty Corstorphine,

35, underwent a series of tests in Cedars of Lebanon Hospital, Los Angeles, last month using a photoelectric cell connected to wires in her brain.

"I saw flashes, at one time a bright flash like an electric light bulb, and at another time a gray, nest as though a light had just gone out," she said.

Dr. John C. Butten said the test showed that brain cells did not atrophy like unused muscle cells but could be stimulated.

Saying that the test "opens the door to the possibilities of electronic vision," he predicted that with adequate funds medical science could refine the apparatus so that within five years almost all blind people could "see" by means of electrical stimulus of the vision centers.

"Eventually," he said, "I'm sure we'll get real sight."

Butten, a 46-year-old neurologist who lives in nearby Maplewood, described the device that may eventually be developed as "something like a radarscope or television set."

Miss Corstorphine, who volunteered for the tests begun last Oct. 28, has been blind since 1939 because of the pressure of an inoperable, benign tumor on her optic nerve.

Butten said wires about half the thickness of a human hair were passed through drilled holes into Miss Corstorphine's brain.

They were then pushed about two inches into the back of the brain to the centers of vision.

The wires were attached to a

600 Wake Forest Students Protest Ban on Dancing

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. (AP) — Students at Wake Forest College jitterbugged on the campus plaza and burned in effigy the retiring president of the Baptist State Convention after the convention ruled out campus dancing.

About 500 or 600 students, mostly male, participated in the demonstration Wednesday night at the Baptist-supported school.

Hi-fi record players blasted at full volume as the laughing and cheering crowd of students danced and shouted such slogans as "Down with the Baptists."

Student leaders said about 25 per cent of the student body joined in the protest against the Baptist State Convention action in Raleigh.

The convention overwhelmingly vetoed campus dancing and apparently ended a lengthy controversy on the topic. School trustees previously had voted to allow dancing.

The students, most of whom wore dark glasses or obscured their faces with handkerchiefs, climaxed the hour long demonstration by burning an effigy labeled "Dr. J. C. Canipe." Canipe retired as president of the Baptist State Convention after speaking against lifting the ban imposed by the convention of 1937.

College policemen took two students, unidentified, in custody for lighting firecrackers.

The convention's action affected seven Baptist colleges in the state. The vote followed a request by trustees of Wake Forest College and Meredith College for women at Raleigh that they allowed to regulate all forms of recreation on their campuses.

Attack on Allies Would Draw U.S. Fire, Dulles Says

Proposed For West Side of City

New Zoning Plan Lists Fire Station

Erection of an auxiliary fire station on the west side of the city is one of the recommendations included in the recently-completed master and comprehensive zoning plan made by the Michael Baker Engineers, it is disclosed.

Council and the Planning Commission will meet Tuesday night with L. W. Pribble, chief engineer for the Baker company, to hear an explanation of the entire master plan.

The engineers' recommendations for the fire house must first be approved by City Council and the Planning Commission before construction can begin.

The need for the extra fire station was first cited by the Planning Commission last year. The commission then recommended that the engineers include it in their zoning plan.

The exact site and cost for the fire house which would be near the corporate limits on the west side of the city has not yet been revealed.

According to city officials, an auxiliary station would eliminate the possibility of a fire getting out of control if trucks from the City Hall station were delayed by a train at any of the grade crossings of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Chief Cites Manpower Need

Four additional men would be needed to man the station and supply temporary aid until the larger trucks could get to the scene, Fire Chief Clarence Wright said Wednesday.

The fire house probably would include one truck and one jeep which would be used to combat brush fires and other minor blazes in that section of the city, Chief Wright said.

Police Who Broke Up Gangland Parley Under Investigation

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — New York state police who broke up and investigated a "gangland conference" a week ago were under investigation themselves today.

Gov. Averell Harriman disclosed Wednesday night that he had ordered a number of inquiries by state agencies into the mobster meeting. One of them directs the state police superintendent to submit "a complete report on the conduct of the raid."

A spokesman said the governor wanted the report since criticism had been raised about the police action.

Troopers flushed out 60 men last Thursday from Joseph Barbara's remote country mansion in the hamlet of Apalachin in southern New York. Many underworld luminaries were netted.

The troopers made no arrests. They said there was no charge on which to hold any of the guests. The visitors insisted they were visiting a sick friend—Barbara.

There has been criticism of the state police in some quarters over the prompt release of the participants in the meeting. There also have been reports that top state police officials were angry over the fact that they were not consulted during the roundup and questioning.

The state police superintendent, Francis S. McGarvey, endorsed the manner in which his subordinates had acted. They did "the best they could under the circumstances," he said.

The governor's spokesman was asked whether Harriman's call for a full report meant he had overruled McGarvey. The spokesman said Harriman simply wanted the report because of the criticism raised.

There has been speculation that the meeting was held to divide up the interests of mobster Albert Anastasia, who was slain last month while sitting in a barber's chair in New York City.

Fast Retaliation Against NATO Aggressor Seen

Secretary Declares Stevenson To Be on Payroll 'Long Time'

CHICAGO (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles says that forces of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization would "almost certainly fight back" without waiting for a declaration of war if attacked in the field.

Dulles told newsmen Wednesday night such a decision would be made on the spot by field commanders.

He said the attack "almost certainly would involve American troops because the NATO forces are so intermingled."

Fire certainly would be returned, he added, "if it were something comparable to Pearl Harbor, say."

The remarks arose from a question about the "time for decision" in the event of a possible atomic attack on NATO forces.

Adlai Stevenson, the two-time Democratic presidential candidate who has become a consultant to the Eisenhower administration on Atlantic Alliance problems, came to Chicago with Dulles. He told reporters he will do all he can to help in his post as consultant to the Republican administration.

However, Stevenson added that he was "certainly not" a member of President Eisenhower's team. He said he has not been asked to attend next month's big NATO meeting in Paris with Eisenhower and Dulles. "There won't be a decision on that until later," he said.

Stevenson says that he will review and discuss U. S. plans to be placed before the NATO conference.

On Payroll Long Time
Dulles said Stevenson "will be on the federal payroll a long, long time." If the former Illinois governor approves of this country's NATO proposals, Dulles said, he has expressed a willingness to work for their adoption abroad and in this country.

He said Stevenson is on the government payroll and that the pay for consultants is $50 a day "or something like that."

Dulles, in an extemporaneous speech before members of the Council on Foreign Relations Wednesday night, said the launching of Russian earth satellites would be a very good thing indeed if they lead us to realize the magnitude of our peril.

The only possible means of meeting this threat, he said, was in cooperation with other free nations—a policy which he said has been successful since 1950. There has been virtually no extension of Soviet domain since then, he said.

The Russians, he said, are trying to reach the Pacific.

Americans In Antarctica

Murdo Sound, way down at the frozen bottom of the world, is distinguished by a whole lot of nothing — unless you want to count snow, ice and penguins. But the members of Operation Deep Freeze III manage to make out all right even if it means tackling such womanly jobs as doing one's own sewing. There are no traffic problems, and when you want a taxi, just crank up a tracked "weasel" and take off. The penguins, Antarctica's only permanent residents, will total a few less by the time the Americans leave. A number of them will be shipped to zoos in Portland and San Diego.

Credit Demand Increases

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK — Changing home budget habits are pushing charge account and installment buying into old strongholds of cash and carry.

Early next year J. C. Penney will test credit sales in a few of its 1,700 stores which have been strictly cash and carry since its founding in 1902.

W. T. Grant is putting an installment credit plan into 86 new stores this year, bringing its entire chain of 699 into the plan. It tested the idea on a pilot basis in Atlanta, Ga., in 1946, and gradually extended it to other stores and regions.

Credit buying has increased everywhere since the war. Young persons in particular budget their income to fit installment payments. Rising prices and merchandise upgrading have put many purchases out of the reach of the old cash and carry customer. The trend to larger families also spurs use of credit for mass outfitting.

So the cash and carry chains, appealing to lower budget groups, have found the department store charge account systems an increasing competition.

Officials of Grant's say their credit plan has been used by more than one million customers. Last year 33½ million dollars worth of merchandise, or 8.8 per cent of total sales, were charged.

Penney's hasn't decided yet which type of credit plan to use, or where the tests will be made.

The Grant plan differs sharply from the old fashioned charge account because the customer pays a prefixed sum at regular intervals regardless of the size of purchases from time to time.

It works this way: each store runs its own system under the inspection of the five regional supervisors. A store official studies the applicant's income prospects, buying needs and reputation for paying much as any credit manager does.

Then one of several size coupon books is issued, the coupons ranging from 25 cents to $5, say, so that the store clerk can tear out the necessary amount at time of the purchase of goods.

The customer pays a fixed sum either each week or each month, until the entire book is paid for, rather than having the entire charge of the purchase coming due the first of the month as with a regular charge account.

When the book is used up the customer can go back for another even if he has further payments to make. His income prospects are reviewed to see if he can afford further credit. This helps the store hold down the delinquency rate and helps keep the customer from going beyond his depth.

The service charge varies with the rate of repayment but averages around 10 per cent. Officials explain that this way there is no general rise of prices to meet the credit plan costs, and so the cash customer isn't penalized.

The big demand for credit comes in three spurts — Christmas, Easter, and when families are being fitted out as a group for school and winter.

Delinquencies have been low. Grant officials say. Strikes and layoffs have hit stores in some areas, but most customers arrange for smaller payments for a time and try to pay up arrears quickly when on the payroll again.

One store cites a customer who kept up his payment after being sent to prison. He said he wanted to protect his good name.

Palace Guard Charge Denied by Adams

There is a creepy resemblance between the claim that men become what they eat and the claim that President Eisenhower is the victim of palace guard influence in the White House.

Sherman Adams, the presidential assistant who is the chief target of the accusation, answered his critics in a statement to fellow Republicans in Chicago this week. "The President," he said, "is the head of the executive branch. He is the policy maker. His staff sees to it that he is the best informed man in the country today."

Mr. Adams further declared that nothing could be further from the truth than the accusation that he and others close to the President are taking away his prerogatives. On the contrary, they are trying to maintain his proper authority as a party leader.

Mr. Adams intended this to be a strong answer to the charge that "modern Republicanism," which has been offensive to old-line party members, has been foisted on President Eisenhower by advisers who tell him only what they want him to know and believe.

He thus dismissed with contempt the political insult implied in the charge — that Dwight Eisenhower is incapable of having ideas of his own and has been the victim of the information he has been "fed" by his staff.

This is what many of the President's Democratic critics as well as his Republican critics would like the American people to believe. It is an important talking point in their campaign to belittle Mr. Eisenhower as a political power — a campaign they are carrying on jointly under the "strange bed-fellow" rule of partisan politics.

All politicians know what Mr. Adams is driving at and why he is driving at this particular time. There is clearly an intent to cut down Mr. Eisenhower as a political factor. Democrats are doing it with a view to neutralizing his influence in next year's congressional elections and in the national elections in 1960. The President's opponents inside the party are doing it with a view to neutralizing his influence over the Republican nominating convention in 1960.

Unfortunately, the American people will not be so quick to understand what is afoot. It can only be hoped that enough of them will become aware of the dirty work afoot to understand why their chief executive is being belittled at a critical time by men in both parties who seek to plant the scurrilous idea that Dwight Eisenhower has no mind of his own.

No More Secrecy For Secrecy's Sake

If we are lucky enough to close the gap in the race to achieve security in the age of long-range rockets which the Soviet Union dramatically started by shooting Sputnik I aloft, it will be one more rebuke to secrecy for secrecy's sake.

Once again, the American people were shut away from information that would have made them alert to a national danger. Once again, the military mind, which loves to keep under cover what it knows as well as what it does not know, built walls of secrecy around the subject of rockets.

By barring the press from information and by lowering the boom on every skeptic who tried to get answers to embarrassing questions, the militarists and their unwitting allies among non-military officialdom spread the impression that no news was good news.

The contrary was true. No news was bad news. Had the American people known how bad it was, there would have been an angry clamor for correction. The time-tested machinery of public opinion would have brought force to bear on government. "The climate of public opinion" would have been as favorable for a stepped-up program of rocket development as it is expected to be when the modern Paul Reveres are through warning the countryside that the Russians may be coming from on high.

The same thing happened when the Nazi Germans and the imperialist Japanese stole a march on the United States in aviation before World War II. No news had been good news until the American people earned in the Battle of Britain and at Pearl Harbor that no news had been bad news.

Secrecy for secrecy's sake is contrary to the principle of popular government. It always backfires against the hush-hushers who become so preoccupied with secrets that they begin to hide everything, including information that belongs to the people who must pay for both their triumphs and their blunders.

It is always a costly lesson to learn anew and why it must be learned anew every time is one of the chronic perplexities of government.

Where Do You Live?

The lively topic in the current conference of the National Municipal League in Cleveland this week is metropolitan government.

Because it is the lively topic wherever urban residents get together, everybody should know what it means.

It is a cooperative arrangement among units of government in a metropolitan area to provide essential services jointly, instead of separately.

Thus, it is a concession by public officials that the modern city is comprised of all levels of government that operate within the city as a whole, not merely within certain boundaries. On Election Day in Ohio, a progressive step was taken toward county charter government by adoption of a constitutional amendment to permit countywide administration. This is restricted at present to counties with more than half a million inhabitants. But it signifies the emergence of a new pattern of government that will be watched closely by all cities.

The residents of cities may live inside or outside municipal, township and county boundaries; they are still residents of the cities they call their own. They all want and need certain services that must be provided by collective action, without regard to the jurisdictional jealousies of government. This is the fact and the push behind metropolitan rule, the liveliest subject of the day in local government.

Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

New York's three million dollar anti-jaywalking drive is on. Okay, but how can a man get across the street on same light that permits automobile drivers to regard him as illegal entry in race for survival?

Question from all pedestrians is, "Ain't I in greater danger crossing where autos are trying to boot me with precision timing than in midblock where I trust nobody and consequently have a better chance?"

First day of war on jaywalkers was not too good. Even the campaign committee leaders forgot to obey signs in their hurry to get results.

It seemed clear that campaign would have to include free lessons in jumping over autos moving on same light as pedestrians. It takes a skilled pole-vaulter.

FOR THE FIRST TIME, however, the campaign to make pedestrians pay attention to signs is being made in all seriousness with co-operation from many quarters noted for optimism in tackling tough jobs.

Drive will be largely educational at start. But how can you get a man interested in education when he is on one side of a street and suddenly sees his girl friend on the other?

Will a woman, seeing a bargain sale across the avenue, stop to think of life and limb?

Slogans, warnings and appeals to keep well feature drive for present, with police action later. New York has got to allow cops, judges, district attorneys, juries and defense lawyers time to learn how to cross a street properly first.

PARK AVENUE SOCIETY woman and

They Went That-a-Way

Only a cartoonist could do justice to the first sight of the first day of hunting season. It is not for sore eyes.

On every road leading out of town, cars bearing hunters surge toward the wide-open spaces, most of which have been posted with glaring warnings to stay out because all trespassers will be prosecuted.

The occupants are intent on getting there anyway — and all of them are hoping to be fustest where there's the mostest. But when they arrive, they are lastest where there's the leastest. It is a bitter disappointment. Hunting isn't what it used to be, they complain.

The trouble is, of course, that the modern cottontail and pheasant can read. They wait for the No Hunting signs to appear, then head for town. It is a neat transfer of the hunter and the hunted. There are, of course, stragglers among the rabbits and birds; they are the ones who travel at their own risk and suffer the consequences. The prudent ones, however, are all safe and sound in town, where they will stay until the insurrection blows over.

That is why hunting isn't what it used to be. It never will be, until farmers are permitted to go hunting in town, shooting at everything that moves and laying down a barrage that pins the natives indoors until darkness falls.

charity worker says she stands on head 5 minutes every morning. Says it gets her off to a better start than if she remained right-side up. Question: In the confused state of affairs today how does anybody know whether he or she is right-side up or not? Nevertheless there are thousands of headstanders who pursue routine. But it is bad news.

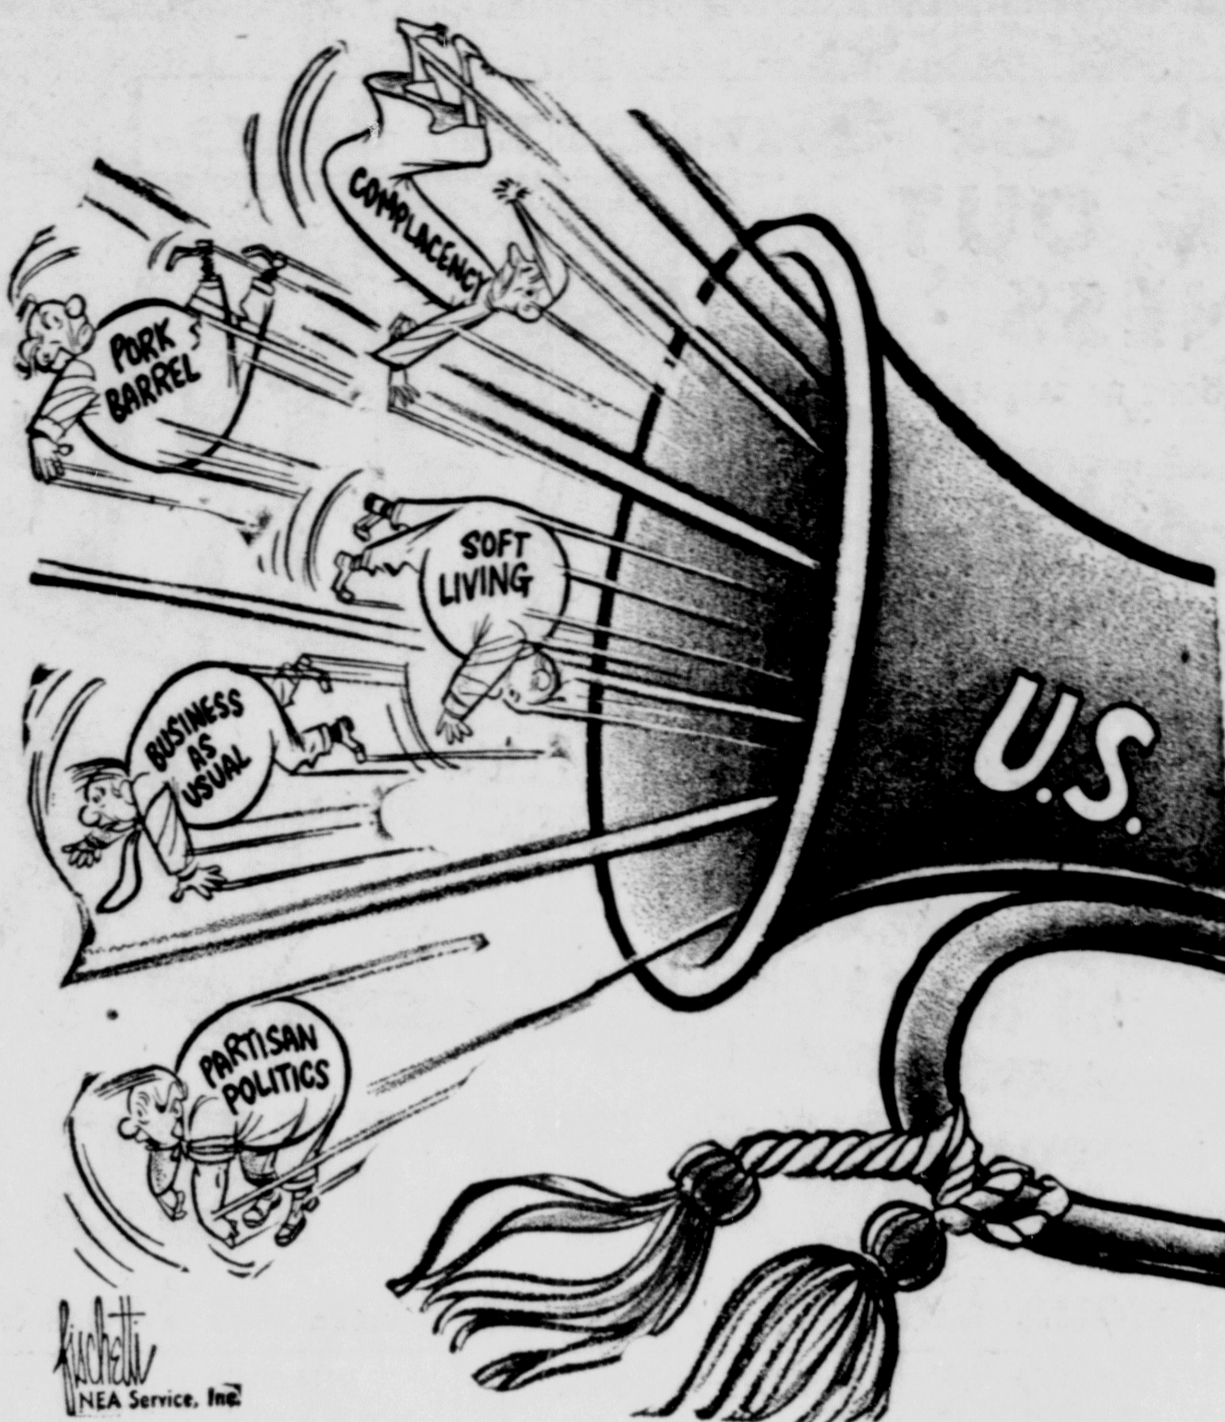

Husbands are confused enough without suddenly discovering the wife on her noggin without a blow struck. And wives have their troubles without discovering mate on floor trying to revive old-time vaudeville acrobatic acts. A wife on head is more disturbing than a husband. It isn't like her.

He yells for the doctor rarely taking the attitude: "Oh, well, there is no telling what a woman will do." Wife, seeing husband upside down, is less disturbed.

She just yawns "Webster, the country club cocktail party was over eight hour ago. Be yourself." Or says, "Either you stop practicing for Mardi Gras or I go home to mother." (Meanwhile the kids just chirp, "Those two have the nerve to say children are a problem.")

REVENUE DEPARTMENT says income tax must be paid on bingo winnings. The missus wants to know if she can make deductions for unlucky bingo cards, losses through overoptimism and injury to her combative system through rows with husband over comparative fiscal problems. Revenue men say the women must also report "full market value of merchandise" won. (Ever know of any two people agreeing on what bingo merchandise is worth?)

Call to Arms

Military Standoff

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—The 12 tormented years since World War II fall into focus if you look at what the world faced and faces. The Russians gambled for time and won.

They started out in 1945 at a terrible military disadvantage. This country had the atomic bomb. They didn't. If they pushed too hard, they could have been massacred.

This was an unhappy position for a nation bent on communizing the world. Until they were equal in strength to the United States, they were an unimpressive spectacle to their would-be victims.

They'd be arguing from weakness. What they needed was time to catch up with or surpass this country. They concentrated on doing just that.

Once they reached their goal, then:

There didn't necessarily have to be a world war. Both sides then would know they could wipe themselves off the earth. In that kind of military standoff, the Russians, with their aggressive designs, had some advantage.

They could blackmail their neighbors, use intrigue, subversion, economic penetration, propaganda, everything in the book.

Their concentration of the military development—and apparently their confidence in reaching equality with the United States — explains as well as anything why they stalled and frustrated all attempts at disarmament.

In the meantime, they didn't stop pushing. They pushed, though short of war. For instance: pressuring Iran, Turkey, Greece. This country stiff-armed them and they backed down.

In 1948 they got control of Czechoslovakia by seizure from within. In 1949 they had their first atomic explosion. The next year they felt strong enough to try a little war.

They let it start in Korea. This country blocked them there. But without using the atomic bomb. By that time the Russians probably had atomic bombs of their own. A world war could have started then.

The Russians went on the hydrogen bomb (1953) and in 1957 to missiles and satellites.

In the years since Korea, while still trying to come abreast of the United States, the Russians still pushed. But they did it more quietly than in Greece, or Turkey or Iran or Korea. They slowly got a foothold in the Middle East by promises and help of various kinds. They worked on Southeast Asia.

Now that they are abreast of the United States they may push harder, although still short of all-out war. These next two years should be critical ones.

This country expects by 1959 to have some of its allies armed with missiles capable of hitting Russia from the western rim of Europe. Russia claims it has such weapons now, capable of destroying Western Europe from Russia.

Will it sit by until Western Europe equals it in missile strength? Perhaps, if only through fear of starting a war which could end in its own annihilation. For this reason: Russia is surrounded with American bombers which could dump hydrogen loads if Russia started shooting. Right now there is a standoff.

SIDE GLANCES

Misguided Partisanship

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Democrats Not Bound to Follow Stevenson's Lead

Adlai Stevenson is getting quite a build-up these days. It could mean that he will get the Democratic presidential nomination again, or perhaps he may become secretary of state if the Democrats win in 1960.

When ever the word "bipartisanship" is mentioned in Washington, it gets lukewarm treatment by the party out of power because it could mean a diminution in the intensity of the attack the outside party can carry on against an incumbent administration. Politicians behave the same way irrespective of party. There has been lip service by Republicans to "bipartisanship" under Democratic administrations and there has been during the Eisenhower administration a consistent hammering away at its foreign policy by the Democrats. The usual cliché of the "outs" is that "we are not being consulted."

THERE IS NO REASON, moreover, to believe "bipartisanship" will materialize now just because Adlai Stevenson is being "consulted." What is called "bipartisanship" is window dressing.

There have been "consultations" and "conferences" between members of the opposite party and the administration in the past, but since the objective is to present a "united front" abroad, this goal is almost never achieved, as the news dispatches from day to day reveal.

No matter how many times Adlai Stevenson "consults" or issues statements saying he has been given comprehensive information about the administration's plans, this will not bind, for example, Sen. Fulbright of Arkansas or Humphrey of Minnesota or Mansfield of Montana — all three of whom have in recent months been emitting criticisms of the administration in the same tone and tenor as the declarations from the Democratic National Committee's Headquarters.

On the very day it was announced that there would be "bipartisan consultations" with the President and the secretary of state, there was issued a biting statement of criticism by the Democratic advisory committee which Mr. Stevenson found himself compelled to sign.

"Bipartisanship" is often extolled as a desirable policy but in practice it runs into the usual argument that, after all, the party in power has the responsibility and cannot delegate it to others.

References is often made to Sen. Vandenberg's cooperation with the Truman administration, especially at San Francisco when the United Nations Charter was being written.

INSTANCES of this kind occur, but they do not abolish the partisanship. They merely shift the job of yammering to others in the party.

Senators are a law unto themselves, and so are many members of the House who are caustic in their criticism of foreign policy for a variety of reasons of their own. Maybe the only way to abolish the partisanship is for each party to restrain the mimeograph machines and statement-writing staffs of the two national headquarters of the major parties. For the party mechanisms of publicity apparently never stop functioning, and the barrage of "misguided Missiles" is constant, no matter which party is in power.

What then is the purpose of the incumbent administration is the consultations just initiated by the secretary of state with Adlai Stevenson? The real hope is that the criticism of foreign policy will be softened and that the administration somehow will benefit—that all this is better than allowing unrestrained combat on the political front to be continued.

As for Adlai Stevenson, he personally gains an advantage by the experience.

THE AMERICAN people will be told by the press regularly that he is "in the know," and this will help somewhat to develop the idea that he is capable of dealing with complex problems on the international side.

Already, so far as knowledge of international affairs is concerned he stands in public esteem head and shoulders above any other man being mentioned for the Democratic presidential nomination. This, therefore, represents a big gain for the former governor of Illinois.

As for the other Democratic party hopefuls, they will go on blasting the secretary of state and the administration. Only the American people can reduce the effects of political partisanship and they usually do it by exhibiting their customary common sense in rejecting as irrelevant the speeches that display partisan selfishness and accepting as significant those that give some semblance of statesmanship.

Deficit Financing

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—More guns can be sold to the American public more easily today than last better.

But the considerable increase in defense spending which President Eisenhower says must come and which most Americans probably approve will have to be paid for.

And the three ways of paying for it will bear on both individuals and business firms, either directly or indirectly.

One way would be to keep within the present budget plans by paring sums for various domestic programs.

For example, the Agriculture Department puts its spending on its various farm programs including price supports at 5 billion dollars a year—a figure which this year's large crops aren't likely to trim. Any paring back of such supports will be hard to put through Congress.

Veterans' outlays also run around five billion dollars a year. Les butter for either the farmers or the veterans would plague not only them but also the merchants and manufacturers with whom they deal.

A second way to pay for more defense would be to raise taxes, either on individuals or corporations or both. The revolt against high taxes was widespread before the Sputniks began to beep or bark and various political leaders had promised taxes would be cut next year. To raise taxes the Congress probably would need to convince the public of the immediate peril to security.

The third way to pay the new bill for rockets and missiles would be, as President Eisenhower hinted in his Oklahoma City speech, to return to deficit financing, raising the federal debt limit, and running the Treasury in the red again.

Deficit financing admittedly is an inflationary measure, one of the classic reasons why prices rise.

But the need to catch up with the Russians is widely accepted. And when the American public is convinced that Washington has found the right way to do it without throwing money around needlessly, here is likely to be little grumbling about the sacrifices that go with it.

The Pentagon is reported to feel that the increased spending will run about one or two billion dollars a year.

This would affect defense industries directly, as the stock market had judged in running up the prices of stock in companies in the missiles field. One or two billion dollars are only a small part, however, of total business activity in this nation.

Higher taxes, on the other hand, might lead to some drop in consumer buying of civilian goods. This would affect many industrial and trade fields.

And if deficit financing threatens more inflation the Federal Reserve Board might tighten the screws even more on the money market. Many lines of business would feel this.

The cost of the butter it will take to pay for the guns will be cheap enough if it assures national security.

Ohio Labor Unions To Form Committee

COLUMBUS, Ohio (U-P) — Four major labor unions in Ohio have agreed to form a 12-man committee to coordinate opposition to so-called "right-to-work" legislation.

A joint announcement Wednesday from the Ohio State Federation of Labor, the Ohio CIO Council, the United Mine Workers and the Railroad Brotherhood, said the committee will serve as a steering group both in fighting "right-to-work" legislation and in acting on any other developments affecting the labor movement.

Each of the four unions will appoint three members. Appointees will be announced later.

The Ohio State Journal, meanwhile, said it has learned that a statewide organization will be incorporated soon to sponsor a proposed "right-to-work" amendment to the Ohio constitution.

The Journal said the organization will be similar to the Ohio Information Committee that successfully opposed a 1955 bill to increase unemployment benefits and legalize supplemental unemployment benefits in the state.

Guarding Your Health

By DR. EDWIN P. JORDAN

Questions and Answers

There are several important comments which should be made on today's first inquiry.

Q — Please write something about hypoglycemia. When I become very tired I eat a piece of two of candy and that pep me up so I can continue my work.

A — Hypoglycemia means a lower than normal amount of sugar in the blood. It can only be determined by chemical testing of the blood and not by any symptoms. Furthermore, it is only one of several possible causes for fatigue. There are several varieties of hypoglycemia which do not all require the same treatment. It is important not only to determine the blood sugar from a sample taken before breakfast, but also to find out what is responsible. In one variety, for example, the treatment consists of small frequent meals high in protein foods and not in candy or similar starches. Thus, Mrs. H. may be making a great mistake in the way she is handling her fatigue.

Q — I am 70 and blessed with good health, except that I am considerably bothered with dryness in my mouth, especially at night. Can you discuss this?

A — A deficiency in the secretion of saliva frequently accompanies a number of diseases such as diabetes, Bright's disease and fevers. Sometimes, however, people are troubled with this symptom without any obvious cause. The procedure, therefore, in Mr. L.'s case is first to make sure that he does not have any disease which can be responsible. If none is found, he can try to obtain relief by mouth washes, possibly containing glycerin, or by small doses of certain drugs. Since these drugs are potent, they should not be tried without professional advice.

Q — Every morning when my husband awakes he complains of having no strength in his hands. In fact, some mornings he cannot pick up his coffee cup. Can you name the specialist he should see for his condition?

A — This would probably fall in the field of the nerve specialist, or neurologist.

Q — I have read that there is a definite connection between food colorings, or dyes, and cancer. Also I have heard that plastics, especially plastic dishes, are a cause of cancer. Would you discuss this?

A — So far as I know, there is no definite evidence that coloring matter currently used in foods are directly related to the production of cancer. There is, however, an increasing amount of study going into this subject aimed at determining the safety of so-called food additives. So far as plastic dishes are concerned, there is even less likelihood of their causing cancer.

commission should be made up of Communists and neutrals. The Reds only total one ninth of the Assembly, and even a Communist-central census adds up to considerably less than half the 82 nations.

After the Soviets had turned down three Western compromise offers, it became apparent to many that Russia had no intention of taking part in U. N. arms negotiations at this stage and would find some pretext for opposing any compromise.

Many diplomats believe the Kremlin leaders, bolstered by their spectacular success with space missiles, consider U. N. disarmament negotiations a waste of time and want the talks limited to the United States and Russia.

WEST POINT FIRE CHIEF — John Tusek stands before the new $3,500 International pumper (right), which has been purchased as a replacement for the department's 1938 fire truck badly damaged in a Route 30 traffic collision in October 1956.

The new truck, which carries 500 gallons of water and pumps at a rate of 500 gallons a minute, is supplemented by a Ford truck, a 1,000 gallon tanker shown at the left.

Don Custer is in the cab of the Ford and Don Passage is in the new truck.

Chief Tusek said members of the department will attend orientation sessions to learn handling and operation of the new model. It will be housed in the garage of Charles Snyder at West Point until a new fire station is completed, Chief Tusek said.

These weapons would be earmarked for Allied use in the event of war, but would remain under technical control of the United States and thus would not violate existing law governing disposal of such weapons.

Gore said that with such stockpiles established the United States could go ahead with all of the necessary preparations for Allied use of the weapons without changing the law.

Miss Corstorphine was given the cell and told to point it about a partially darkened room. As the cell was pointed toward lights placed about the room, Miss Corstorphine said she received flashes of light.

In further tests, Button said, she could pick up flashes from lights as dim as a 40-watt bulb.

The device, he said, can work on any blindness except that caused by injury to the center of vision deep in the brain. "And," he added, "there aren't many of them."

Interservice

IRBM was challenged by William M. Holaday, the Defense Department's missile boss. "I don't believe so," Holaday said after emerging from the hearing.

Holaday conceded that "based on what they the Russians said, maybe we are behind them" in developing an intercontinental ballistic missile ICBM.

Intermediate range missiles are designed to reach targets up to 1,500 miles away. An intercontinental missile would travel 5,000 miles.

Mahon said it would be "a very helpful thing" if the missile program were taken away from the individual services and consolidated "up into the Defense Department."

Another critic of interservice rivalry is Sen. Clifford P. Case (R-N.J.), who said in Montclair, N. J. that such pulling and hauling "suggests an alarming tendency to overlook the real competitor" — Russia.

Top Officials To Greet President

Cleveland Advances Preparations For Eisenhower's Visit On Tuesday

CLEVELAND (AP) — President Eisenhower will be greeted by top state, county and city officials when he arrives here next Tuesday afternoon to deliver a major speech on national and international security.

Heading the greeters will be Gov. C. William O'Neill. He has announced that he will set aside the entire day to be certain to be on hand when the President arrives at Cleveland-Hopkins Airport about 4 p. m.

The officials will accompany Eisenhower in a motorcade to the downtown area. Mrs. Eisenhower probably will not accompany the President to Cleveland.

Others expected to be on hand include U. S. Sen. John W. Bricker, former Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey and Mayor Anthony J. Celebrezze.

Humphrey will introduce the President for his speech at Public

Hall that night. It will be telecast and broadcast nationally.

U. S. Sen. Frank J. Lausche is visiting friends on the West Coast and it is not certain whether he will be here for the President's visit.

Curtis Lee Smith, president of the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce, is in charge of arrangements for the visit. Cuyahoga County Republican chairman A.L. (Sonny) DeMaio said party leaders are not participating in the arrangements because of the non-political nature of the President's visit, but that they undoubtedly would be represented.

Smith estimated that about 12,000 seats will be available at Public Hall for the President's speech. Admission will be by ticket only and the demand has been "terrific," he said. Distribution of the tickets will be handled by 20 civic and professional groups.

The speech will be the third in a series delivered by the President in various sections of the country to assure the nation that United States military and technological forces are able to compete with Russia despite Russia's jump on this country in delivering an earth satellite into outer space.

His subject will be "The Value of International Cooperation in Our Nation's Security." The speech will be televised "live" by the Columbia Broadcasting Co. from 9 to 9:30 p. m. E.S.T., and broadcast by radio networks at the same time. The American Broadcasting Co. will televise the talk on film at 10:30 p. m. and the talk on film at 10:30 p. m. and the talk on film at 10:30 p. m.

Lima Murder Trial May Start Today

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—Attorneys said they hope to be able to deliver their opening statements this afternoon in the first degree murder trial of Ralph Forsythe.

Forsythe, 42, is charged with the Aug. 10 fatal shooting of Charles Conner, 37. Conner's body has not been found, but the prosecution is expected to base its case on testimony from two witnesses police say were present at the alleged shooting.

Attorneys have spent three days trying to seat a jury but have failed to reach agreement. They said they hope to reach final agreement today.

GARBAGE MAN — Vincent J. Squillante, above, pint-sized czar of New York's garbage collectors, refuses to tell Senate Labor Rackets Committee in Washington about his relation to late mobster Albert Anastasia. speeches in the series were at Washington Nov. 7 and in Oklahoma City Nov. 13.

Smith said that applications for tickets should be mailed to the Chamber of Commerce offices by Friday. Persons not affiliated with organizations in charge of ticket distribution may request two tickets by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to the chamber before that time.

"We have been flooded with requests for tickets from Clevelanders and groups in nearby communities," Smith said. "We can't guarantee to fill all requests, but all that can be taken care of will be in the mail by Friday night."

Groups that will handle the ticket distribution are the Cleveland Advertising Club, Cleveland Treasurers Club, Rotary Club, Kiwanis Club, Cleveland Convention and Trade Show Bureau, Cleveland Executives Assn., Junior Chamber of Commerce, City Club, Assn., Smaller Business of America, Inc., Council on World Affairs, Cleveland Personnel Assn., Cleveland Industrial Relations Assn., Cleveland Training Directors Assn., Cleveland Works Managers Assn., Cleveland Sales Executives Club, Cleveland Engineering Society, Cleveland Farmers Club and the northeastern Ohio chapter of the Public Relations Society of America.

President Eisenhower's last visit here was Oct. 1, 1956, during his campaign for re-election. Nearly 30,000 persons saw him then — 50,000 at Public Square, where he spoke at the time, and 25,000 to 30,000 along the route of the motorcade from the airport.

Successful Humorist

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—"Understanding of life can be achieved only by being happy," said Victor Borge, who milks money, music and laughter from the piano. In his home he retains his professional atmosphere of good humor.

Borge is a craftsman. His use of piano humor is mannered, adroit, warm, often repetitive, but highly effective.

He is in some ways the most successful humorist alive. It is said that he received $100,000 for his first television show. It is also said that he will receive $200,000 more for a show next Feb. 19 on CBS.

Borge came to this country as a poor Danish immigrant with three things between him and starvation—his inability to speak English, his ability to disturb a piano, and his sense of humor.

Today he faces the world with the same charming defects, plus a wife and five children. He now runs a 450-acre farm in Connecticut and has become one of the nation's largest distributors of rock cornish hens.

This is now a million-dollar-a-year business with him.

Although the margin of successful operation is notoriously short in the poultry field, Borge, who has earnings from the show world to plow into it, is optimistic that his efforts to popularize the rock cornish hens.

He says about this world: "It is so small...so big...you cannot live long enough in it to do the things you want to. (He was speaking about invitations to perform in South Africa, Australia.)

"I don't believe in fatalism. But I do believe in cause and effect.

"A walk across the street can change your life. Every second can change your life.

"But I do believe in goals. I don't believe anything is just blind accident.

"There is no such thing as bad weather or a bad thing. What I don't like, my neighbor may."

cornish hen will yield him more than a mound of feathers. This is a plump-breasted bird designed to sell at 89 to 99 cents a pound, dry and wry in person as it is on the platform before the piano and the public.

Tavern Owner Is Exonerated

Top Court Reverses Delinquency Ruling

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A Cleveland tavern operator has been cleared of charges of contributing to the delinquency of a 15-year-old girl police used as a "decoy" to buy liquor.

The State Supreme Court Wednesday upheld an Appellate Court reversal of the conviction of Theodore Mielau Jr.

"Where a minor enters a bar in the company and custody of policemen for the purpose of purchasing intoxicating liquor," the high court ruled, "there is obviously no delinquency...there being no delinquency, there was no delinquency which the defendant could aid, abet, or encourage."

The court also agreed to review the case of a man who claimed he was "brownbeaten and berated" while being improperly detained by a Geauga County justice of the peace.

Sterling P. Minor appealed to the Supreme Court from lower courts to consider his action against John W. Seliga, operator of a tavern in Bainbridge Twp., and his son, Thomas Seliga, justice of the peace whose office was next door.

Minor said he was picked up Dec. 8, 1955 on a complaint by John Seliga that Minor had damaged bar stools in the tavern. Minor said he denied the charge but was turned over to a deputy sheriff and taken to Justice Seliga's office where the questioning took place. Minor was released later.

In other actions, the Supreme Court:

Refused to disturb Mahoning County decisions denying Jim Frank and Eddie Williams additional workmen's compensation for injuries suffered while employed by Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co., Youngstown. Frank was injured in 1947 and Williams in 1950. They filed separate claims for benefits.

Disregarded an appeal from Ashland County Appellate Court which reversed a decision in favor of the Hayesville Feed Co. in a $75,000 suit by Gloria Tischen of New York. She was injured in the collision of a car in which she was riding and a company truck at the intersection of U.S. 30 and Township Road 135 Oct. 17, 1955.

Refused to consider the appeal of Mrs. Doris Lehman from Stark County Appellate Court reversal of a $45,000 award against Earl Hayman for injuries suffered in the collision of their cars on U. S. near Robertsville May 21, 1952. Appellate Court ordered a new trial.

Let stand Stark County decisions denying exemption from a tax assessment of $2,395 on a bequest of $33,065 to Trinity Lutheran Church, Akron, because of the nature of the church's charter. The state allowed tax exemption on charity bequests to the Salvation Army, Massillon, and Glendale Cemetery, Akron.

'Share In America' Is Savings Bond Theme

Special store window displays here are calling attention to the "Share In America" week which is being sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce with the cooperation of the U.S. Treasury Department.

The campaign is designed to stimulate thrift and to stress the patriotic and personal values of regular investment in United States Savings bonds through payroll savings plan.

Clerks at the Schwartz store gave a patriotic motif to a mannequin by outfitting the model in a savings bond dress, complete with a $100 bond chapeau. The clerks in the photo are Mrs. Guy Coppock, Miss Bess Dixon and Mrs. Daniel Herman.

Other stores helping to promote the campaign include McCulloch's, Strouss-Hirschberg, Penneys, Murphy's, Kresge's, and the local banks.

Boy Scouts and the Jaycees distributed savings bond literature city-wide.

Mr. Williams pointed out that of the 11 local companies with more than 100 employees, nine operate the payroll savings plan. The total number of employees on this plan is 1,926, with the average monthly bond deduction being $28.

The total amount of savings bonds (all series) held in Columbiana County is $38,050,000 or approximately $1,200 per family, Williams pointed out.

Sales in 1956 amounted to $2,960,000 and as of September of this year sales were 10 per cent behind the 1957 quota of $3,024,000, he said. The Series E bond which are purchased only by individuals, now pays 3 1/4 interest when held to the new maturity of eight years and 11 months.

Claim Murder Victim Died 'Accidentally'

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Attorneys for Richard Rutherford, charged with the first degree murder of Lawrence Price, maintain Price was not murdered, but instead died an accidental death.

Rutherford, 24, of Wheeling Island, W. Va., is charged with clubbing the 37-year-old Bridgeport poolroom operator to death Aug. 13.

Dr. W. J. Shepard, Belmont County coroner, testified as a defense witness Wednesday that Price died from a fractured skull. But he said the fracture could have been caused either by a blow on the head or by a fall.

John Mennillo, a Wheeling, W. Va., detective, testified for the prosecution that Rutherford admitted when he was arrested in Wheeling he hit Price with an object he picked up at the scene. He said he could not remember what the object was.

Mennillo testified that Rutherford admitted hitting Price because of Price's attentions to Cynthia Sue Soos, Rutherford's girl friend.

Miss Soos, who later took the stand, said Rutherford told her before Price's death that he would kill Price.

E. Furnace Drops John's Pennzoil 61-46

Kitzmiller Hits For 26 Markers

Lincoln Way, Sekely, Mark's Landing Win

A 26-point outburst by Gene Kitzmiller of John's Pennzoil featured individual scoring efforts last night in Class B city league basketball action.

Victors in the contests were Electric Furnace over John's Pennzoil 61-46, Lincoln Way over Lisbon Lumber 40-38, Marks Landing over Parker's 45-35, and Sekely's over Miller's Service 56-41.

Kitzmiller's 26 markers for John's Pennzoil against Furnace was not enough. The more balanced scoring of the victors was instrumental in their win. George West had 19 points, George Manning 15 and Roy Yeager 13 for Furnace.

The winners led at halftime 32-30. Lincoln Way came from behind to defeat Lisbon Lumber. The victors after the third period 23-20. However, they rocketed for 20 tallies in the final frame to pocket their win. For Lincoln Way, Leonard Batcha and Rose had 10 counters each while for the losers, Al Arnott had 12 and Gene Hammet 10.

Phil Wenner scored 16 times to pace Marks to a 10-point win over Parker's. The winners led throughout the contest and built up a 37-28 third quarter margin.

Joe Carmelo and Larry Stoffer had 10 each for Parker's. Twenty-five points by Miller's Service in the last period of their game with Sekely's wasn't enough Wednesday night.

Sekely's had built up a 40-16 third quarter lead and despite the losers do-or-die outburst, they hung on for a 56-41 win.

Charles Greiner had 12 and Mooney 11 for the winners. For Marks, John Mellinger collected 16 and Ron Graham 12.

Post Office Pays Tribute To Rare Bird

By The Associated Press
The U.S. Post Office Department formally unveils its tribute to the whooping crane Friday while embattled protectors of the big bird still have something to whoop about.

But not much. There are only 31 whooping cranes alive today, and that is the most since 1950. Last spring 21 wild whoopers started their perilous 2,000-mile journey from the Gulf Coast to the summer breeding ground in northwestern Canada.

By this week, 26—including four young birds—had returned to the Arkansas Refuge near Corpus Christi, Texas.

The captive population includes Rosie, a resident of the San Antonio zoo; Crip and Josephine, the pair that this year brought off a successful hatch of two chicks at the New Orleans zoo; and a couple of unidentified birds who decided the heck with traveling and stayed at Arkansas instead of flying north last spring. There was a third one in this group, but he passed away in the process of being caught as a bridegroom for Rosie.

The Post Office Department's memorial is a three-cent item, fourth in a series of wildlife conservation stamps. It is a blue, green and yellow stamp showing a female whooper bending attentively over two downy youngsters while a male bird stands guard nearby.

An initial printing of 100,000,000 of the new stamps was authorized.

Those who want what the stamp collectors call a first cover can mail self-addressed but unstamped envelopes, with remittances by money order, to the postmasters at New Orleans, Corpus Christi or New York.

Each of these offices will provide distinctive cancellations on the whooper stamps Nov. 22.

Dodgers Will Play 77 Games 'At Home'

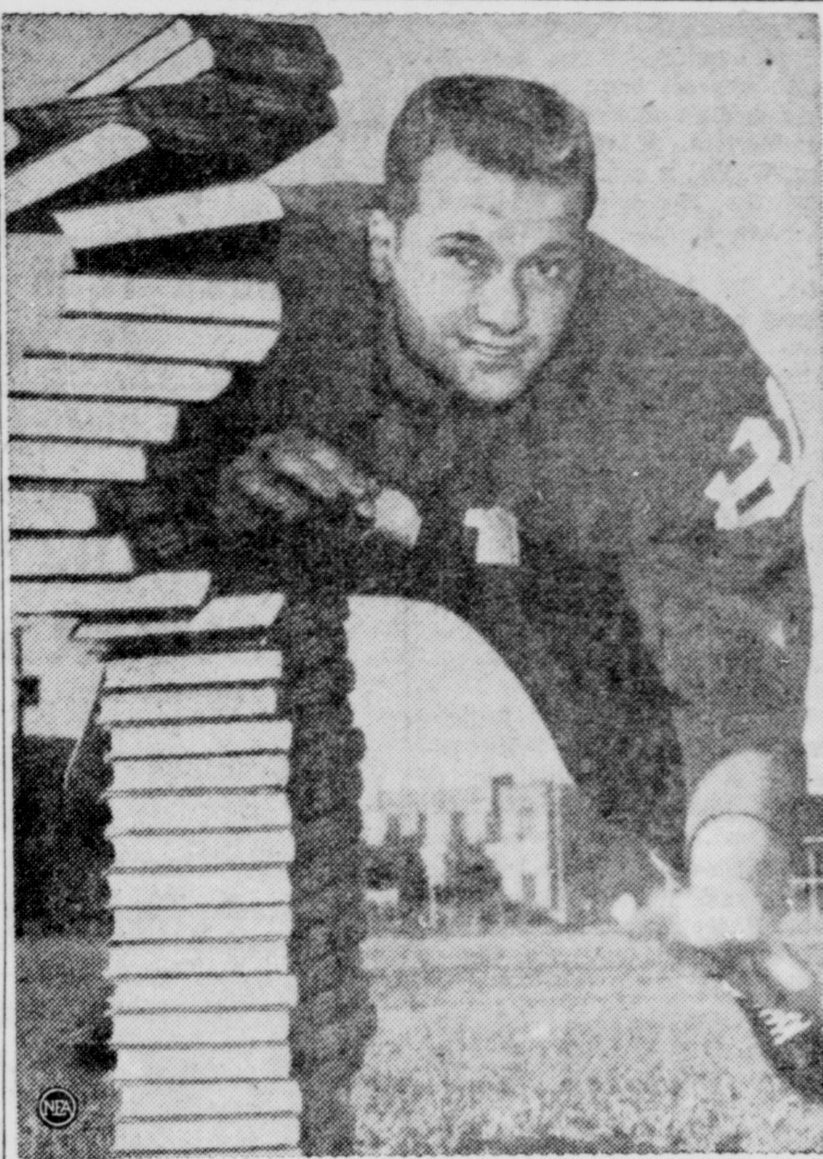

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers, still not sure just where they're going to play in 1958, have announced a 77-game home schedule that includes 35 night games and only 3 doubleheaders.

The expectation is that the transplanted Brooklyn team will play most—if not all—of its home games at spacious Memorial Coliseum. The big bowl holds more than 100,000 people, about four times as many as the alternate playing site, Wrigley Field.

The Dodgers said in announcing the schedule Wednesday that a decision on the playing site, or sites, probably will be made in two weeks or less.

The Dodgers will open the National League season in San Francisco against the Giants April 15 and will play their first home game against the same team April 18.

Chicago—Kid Gavilan, 151, Havana, outpointed Walt Byars, 146, Boston, 10.

BOOK WORM — Gerald Seeman proved by his grades that he knows more about hitting the books than he demonstrates here. Seeman, Texas Tech's junior end majoring in engineering, made the pre-season All-Scholastic All-American squad.

Greene, Grosscup Considered For All-American Positions

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK (AP)—Tom Greene of Holy Cross and Lee Grosscup of Utah, statistically two of the leading ground-gainers in major college football, are among more than two dozen players under consideration for backfield positions on the 1957 All-American team.

The regional boards which have scrutinized the nation's leading teams throughout the season today listed the possibilities.

With two games still left on the schedule for many of the leading teams, the lists submitted this week may undergo radical changes.

Greene and Grosscup, both T-formation quarterbacks, have registered most of their gains by passing. Greene has accounted for a total of 1,323 yards in eight games. Grosscup, 1,231 in nine.

Some superior all-around performers may beat them out for the All-American team.

Well-recommended backs in this category include John Crow, the Texas A.M. bruiser who was listed on the All-American second team last season, Walt Kowalczyk of Michigan State, Joe Francis of Oregon State and Bobby Jordan of Virginia Military Institute.

Quarterbacks King Hill of Rice and Bill Stacy of Mississippi State are also strong possibilities.

Also listed as standouts in their areas were Virginia fullback Jim Bakhtiar, Bob Anderson of Army, Bob Stransky of Colorado, Nick Piastrosante of Notre Dame and Bobby Mulgado of Arizona State.

In the East, Navy passer Tom Forrestal and Princeton's John Sapoch, an exceptional blocking back, were pressing Greene for quarterback honors. Grosscup's Utah teammate, Merrill Douglas, also was well recommended.

Some others listed were Jimmy Taylor, Louisiana State; Ray Brown, Mississippi; Harvey White, Clemson; Dick Christy, North Carolina State; Wray Carlton, Duke; Bobby Schwarze, The Citadel; and Mike Sommer, George Washington.

Gerald Nesbitt, Arkansas fullback, was listed with Crow and Hill in the Southwest. Others were Ohio State's Don Clarke, Michigan's Jim Pace, Oklahoma's Clendon Thomas, Jimmy Jones of Washington, Jack Douglas of Stanford and Tom Flores of College of the Pacific.

Herb Score Speaker At Sports Stag Party

Herb Score, the Cleveland Indians fastballing southpaw, spoke about factors to consider in winning a pennant when he addressed some 125 members of the Salem Council, United Commercial Travelers of America, at their annual sports stag party held Wednesday night at the OSI club in Leetonia.

Score, who called on his personal experiences obtained in his three years in the majors, recounted some reasons why the New York Yankees are so hard to beat. He pointed out that the Yanks are tireless, that they possess depth and versatility in all positions and have good pitching and above all, a strong bench.

Score explained that because the Yankees have won the pennant so often, they consider World Series money in their salaries. He said with New York, success is a habit. He also commented on the Yankee's catcher, Yogi Berra.

Someone questioned Score about his being the only Indian not on the trading block following a statement made by Cleveland's new general manager, Frank Lane.

Score said he didn't know why Lane said that, but that the statement was a big compliment. He added it was foolish for a Cleveland ball player not to rent a house by the day considering all the talk on trades that has been going around.

The southpaw said he felt sorry for ex-Cleveland manager Kerby Farrell. He mentioned that Farrell was hampered by injuries and was blasted for mistakes made by the players.

Score talked about several Cleveland ball players. In a lighter side of his speech, he pointed out that his roommate, Rocky Colavito, not only had flat feet but that the outfielder had "inverted arches."

Preceding Score's talk, William Schaeffer, UCT membership chairman, gave a report on recent membership drives.

Louis Moushey was in charge of arrangements.

Hayes Is Worried; Players Too Happy

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State football coach Woody Hayes is a little worried about the Buckeyes' chances against Michigan Saturday. He's distressed because his men are happy.

"They're too happy," he told a Wednesday.

"Football isn't a happy game," the coach said. "You have to be mean, and that's the way I want my team on Saturday. . . mean. They have to get that right mental stance."

Hayes told the meeting that halfback Don Clark may see only limited duty against the Wolverines in the regular season finale at Ann Arbor.

Clark has been nursing a groin injury he received in the Purdue game Nov. 9.

"Frankly he (Clark) hasn't come along the way we'd hoped he would," Hayes said. "Our job now is to get him to whip the awful pain he gets every time he tries to run hard. Right now I'd say we'll have him ready by Saturday, but only for limited duty."

Clark worked out in uniform Wednesday but restricted himself to a few brief runs from scrimmage.

OSU's Clark Will Face Pace Saturday for Scoring Crown

CHICAGO (AP)—The Big Ten football championship has gone to Ohio State but major statistical titles still are to be decided in Saturday's finale.

Ohio State's Don Clark, withheld from the Iowa game last week with an injury, will face Michigan's Jim Pace for the scoring crown Saturday. The two halfbacks are tied for the lead with 48 points.

Clark, who is expected to be ready to play against Michigan, also will have a chance to clinch rushing honors. He leads Wisconsin's fast-moving halfback star, Danny Lewis, 515 to 433 yards entering the final game. Pace also has a chance with 420 yards to his credit.

Bowling Green Coach Will Speak Here

Booster Club Dinner
Is Scheduled
For Nov. 30

Doyle Perry, head football coach at Bowling Green University for the past two years, will be the featured speaker at the Salem Booster Club's annual dinner meeting to be held Nov. 30 at 6:30 p.m. in the Memorial Building.

Last year Perry was the Ohio college football coach of the year, winner of the Columbus touchdown club award to Ohio's outstanding collegiate coach and the mentor of a team that swept the mythical Ohio college football crown and the Mid-American conference title.

Perry, who is a perfectionist at the gridiron sport, possesses an overall football record of 88 wins, 21 losses and eight ties for a .786 percentage.

Perry received his bachelor's degree in 1932 from Bowling Green and since then his record has showed nothing but success.

He was head football, basketball and track coach at Lorain Clearview, and while at Upper Arlington, Perry tutored the gridiron and cage teams, besides acting as coordinator of the health and physical education and recreation departments. His Lorain football teams won 32 of 46 games while he was there, and his basketball clubs won 161 and lost 35.

Perry returned to Arlington in 1946 after a three-year hitch in the Navy and guided his team to the Central Buckeye League title four times.

In 1951, he joined the Ohio State football team coaching staff, and three years later, Woody Hayes considered him the offensive statistical brain of the Buckeye attack that culminated in the school's western conference and Rose Bowl victories.

The speaker was a three-sport man while in high school and during his senior year he made all-Oio honorable mention in football.

Perry received his secondary education at Hartford high in Croton where he was a three-sport participant and captain of all teams his senior year.

He received his master's degree in physical education in 1938 from Ohio State.

Perry is married to the former Loretta Zeroll of Elyria. They have three children, Judy, 16; David, 10; and Doty Lee, 6.

Pauli Welsh is chairman of the program committee for the meeting. His assistants are John Holzwarth and Francis Waiwaiole.

Tickets are now on sale for the event at both Fishers News Agency and Heddleston's drug store.

The public is invited.

O'Connell Nails Down Quarterback Post

CLEVELAND (AP)—It took a convincing performance but Tommy O'Connell has finally nailed down the job as quarterback of the Cleveland Browns.

O'Connell was almost the entire show against the Washington Redskins as the Browns came from behind to earn a 30-30 tie Sunday. The 5 foot 11 O'Connell threw 24 passes and completed 16, good for 324 yards and one touchdown.

O'Connell, who set Western Conference passing records as a star at Illinois, was one of six quarterbacks in camp when the Browns started training this fall.

When the season opened the field had narrowed down to O'Connell, Milt Plum and John Borton. O'Connell was given the starting assignments because "he was the best quarterback in camp," Coach Paul Brown said. But the coach kept experimenting with Plum and Borton.

Plum started against the Chicago Cardinals after O'Connell turned in a disappointing performance against the Philadelphia Eagles when three of his passes were intercepted. With the Browns trailing Chicago 7-3 in the third quarter O'Connell was put into the game. He threw two touchdown passes which gave Cleveland a 17-7 victory.

"I guess that was the turning point," Brown said.

For the second straight week, O'Connell leads all the passers in the National Football League with a completion mark of 67.7 per cent and an average gain of 10.93 yards per pass.

Kid Gavilan Wins Unanimous Decision Over Walt Byars

CHICAGO (AP)—Kid Gavilan is showing signs of rust but his fighting instinct still has plenty of polish.

The former welterweight champion, who at 31 wants to regain the title, craftily won a unanimous decision over Boston's Walt Byars Wednesday night in a 10-round televised nationally from Chicago Stadium.

Byars, 25, was in a purple rage in the sixth round, complaining to Referee Frank Sikora that the Cuban Kid had struck a low blow. It looked for a minute as if Byars would tear into Gavilan in an angered frenzy.

This he did at the start of the seventh, and the Kid cooled him off with a change of tactics. He started left-jabbing him and the

Rangers Battle To Tie With Detroit

By The Associated Press

The pacesetter New York Rangers today hold a two point lead over Montreal in the National Hockey League race. But looks, in this case, are deceiving.

The Canadiens have played three less games than New York.

"And when we get through playing Chicago Friday night it will be four games," moaned Ranger coach Phil Watson Wednesday night after his club had battled to a 1-1 tie with the Detroit Red Wings.

Actually, the Blueshirts held a wide advantage after Larry Cahoon of New York and Red Kelly of Detroit produced the game's only goals 37 seconds apart midway in the first period. Only the fine netminding of Terry Sawchuk kept the Rangers from putting this one in the won column. Sawchuk came up with 22 saves to only 15 for Marcel Paille in the league leaders' cage.

In the night's only other action, the Toronto Maple Leafs rallied for two goals in the second period to defeat the Chicago Black Hawks 2-1 and move into a fifth place tie with Detroit.

Bob Pulford and George Armstrong got the Leafs' markers after Hec LaLonde had put Chicago in front in the opening period.

Tigers Announce 13-Player Deal

DETROIT (AP)—They're all nice fellows and I hate to see them go. But we never did much while they were here. We're going to get places — and you can't go any place standing still."

Jack Tighe made that comment, discussing the 13-player deal that was announced Wednesday by the Detroit Tigers and the Kansas City Athletics. Tighe is Detroit manager.

General Manager John J. McHale says he is ready to make more trades. The Tigers would like to get back Vic Wertz, the heavy-hitting first baseman whom they traded to the old St. Louis Browns in 1952.

In the latest trade, the Tigers lost Bill Tuttle, Frank House, Duke Maas, Jim Small and John Tsitouris and two minor league players to be named later. They received Billy Martin, Gus Zernial, Maury McDermott, Lou Skizas, Tom Morgan and Tim Thompson.

People around Detroit feel the Tigers got the better of the deal. Tighe said, "We did real well."

The five Tigers named in the deal average 24 1/2 years in age. The six players coming to Detroit have an average age of 29 1/2. The Tigers elected not to hesitate, hope and wait two or three years for players who might become front-line major leaguers.

McHale worked hard on the trade. It was in the talk stage for more than two months. He spent three days in Chicago last week

Michigan Favored Over OSU; Irish Underdog Against Iowa

CHICAGO (AP)—The old Midwest football prognosticator steps up for his final turn at bat with a 46-14 record and a .767 average:

Iowa 14, Notre Dame 7—On the theory that the Hawkeyes, burning after "squandering" the Big Ten title to Ohio State, will make the fur fly in their season finale. The Irish got a tremendous lift from snapping Oklahoma's 47-game winning streak, but now they're back where football life is real. Notre Dame still has two games after Iowa, against Southern California and Southern Methodist.

Michigan 14, Ohio State 1—With or without Don Clark, the Buckeyes will be sand-bagged on their way back from the bank. The only other conference game Ohio State played away from the encouraging roar of the home folk was at Wisconsin. The Bucks had trouble nipping the Badgers, 16-13. This time, the mob will be howling for the Wolverines. Michigan's Jim Pace and Clark could hook up in a dazzling ball-carrying due. The Wolves know about Bob White.

Wisconsin 19, Minnesota 13—The Badgers have plenty of speed, something that has bothered the Gophers all year. Minnesota bowed to Michigan State 42-13 last week. Three weeks ago, the Badgers lost to MSU 21-7. Last week, Wisconsin thumped Illinois 24-13. It was Illinois, on Oct. 19, Marquette 14, Arizona 6—The Warriors snap their 19-game losing streak in a battle of have-nots. Both teams are winless this season. Marquette with a 0-9 mark and Arizona with 0-7-1.

Looking ahead:

Nov. 30—Notre Dame 19, Southern California 7 — The Trojans ain't what they used to be.

Dec. 7—Notre Dame 20, Southern Methodist 20 (tie)—This game is at Dallas where the temperature and scoring will be high.

Rose Bowl—Ohio State 38, Oregon 14—The Buckeyes say Happy New Year with touchdowns.

Midwest Grid Briefs

CHICAGO (AP)—Midwest football briefs:

Ohio State—Star halfback Don Clark did a few brief trots from scrimmage and coach Woody Hayes said: "He hasn't come along the way we hoped he would. He gets an awful pain when he tries to run hard. But I'd say we'll have him ready by Saturday (when the Bucks play Michigan.)" Clark has a groin injury.

Michigan—The Wolverines continued secret drills. Injured quarterback Jim Van Pelt took part in his first practices of the week.

Iowa—Considerable emphasis is being placed on a passing attack for the Notre Dame game. First string end Don Norton appears to have recovered from an ankle injury and was at his old post in the drills. Tackle Dick Klein was out of action with a sore back.

Notre Dame — Halfback Dick Lynch is still handicapped with a neck injury and was replaced by Jim Just. End Bob Wetska, who was hurt his back against Oklahoma, worked at full speed.

Purdue—No. 2 center Sam Joyner still was listed as doubtful for the game with Indiana, but the rest of the squad was in sound shape.

Indiana—Coach Bob Hicks parried questions about a possible "Purdue special"—something unexpected in offense or defense—which he may be readying in secret rehearsals.

Wisconsin—The team is in top shape for Minnesota except for back Bob Zeman, who has a bad knee, and end Dave Kocourek, who has the flu.

Minnesota—Tackle Frank Youso and halfback Billy Martin were withheld from an hour-long drill, shortest practice session of the season.

Illinois—End Ron Hill, tackle Don Yeazel and halfback Bob Mitchell were held out of the only contact drill of the week. They are expected to be in shape for Northwestern.

Northwestern — Halfbacks Wilmer Fowler and Ron Burton, and fullback Sam Johnson were named as starters. But the quarterback spot was undecided.

Michigan State—"We're working just as hard as if we were getting ready for a mid-season game," says coach Duffy Daugherty in preparing for the finale with Kansas State.

Columbiana Builder Requests Use of Village's Water Line

COLUMBIANA — A proposal by School. Basinger has put his property in the hands of an agent for sale.

A FINAL settlement having been reached between the village on one hand and the O'Horo Construction Co. of Youngstown and insurance companies on the other as a result of damage to two village trucks and injury to Wilbur Dyke, a village driver, council appropriated $1,176.70 to pay for the truck repairs. The accident happened last spring when one of the construction company's trucks crashed into two Columbiana street department trucks east of Poland.

Although the property is outside the village limits, council will interpose no objection under the provisions of the proposal.

Hunt is starting a development that is planned to result eventually in about 45 homes. Under his proposal, deeds to all lots will include the provision for annexation whenever the village finds it expedient.

Charles Allen, Canfield engineer, is at work on the survey of Guy Gregg's development in the neighborhood of N. Elm and Sixth Sts. in the northeast parts of town, and James Sprout, formerly with the Y. & S. Railway, who is now doing village engineering, will check with him on street elevations.

Evan Basinger, former Columbiana florist, now of Monrovia, Calif., was before council relative to the vacation of Walnut St., crossing his property from N. Main to N. Elm St., provided for on paper, but never opened.

It appears that the proposal was laid before council several years ago, but that no action was taken. Council will consider the proposal further, as the street, if ever opened, would extend west to Dixon

Mrs. Ella May McCoy of Lisbon, first vice president, presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Virginia Horton of Columbiana, who is ill.

Plans were made for the annual Christmas party, which will be held with Post 4 Auxiliary, East Liverpool, Tuesday evening, Dec. 17, with a $1 gift exchange.

An early spring wedding is planned by Miss Bette Weaver, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Pine, north of Columbiana on Route 164, and Robert Matthews, whose engagement has just been announced.

Miss Weaver is a daughter of Clyde Weaver, South Ave. Ext., Poland, and late Margaret Weaver, and Mr. Matthews a son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel T. Matthews of Youngstown.

A graduate of Columbiana High School, Miss Weaver attended Youngstown College and served two years in the Medical Corps with the WACS. She is employed in the office of Dr. H. P. McGregor, North Lima.

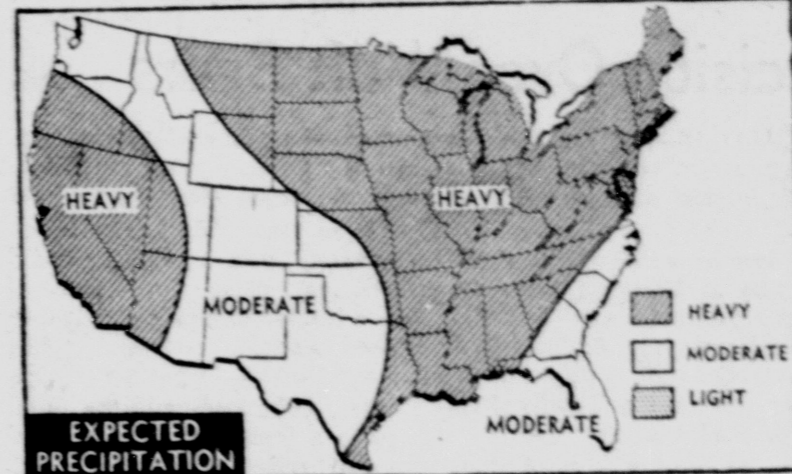

Mr. Matthews, a graduate of Woodrow Wilson High School, of Youngstown, served two years in the Army during the Korean war. He is an engineer in the employ of the Republic Steel Corporation.

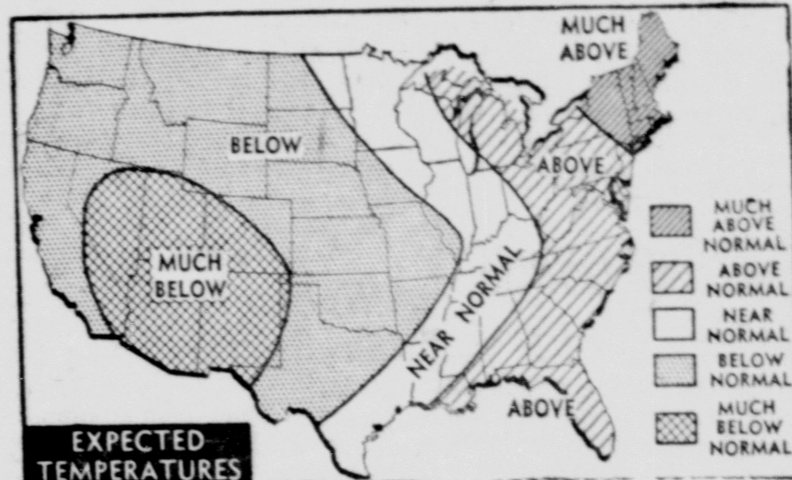

EXPECTED TO BE "REAL HELP" — Adlai Stevenson, right, meets with Secretary of State Dulles at the State Department to discuss proposals which the U. S. delegation will place before the NATO December meeting in Paris. The White House said President Eisenhower expects his unsuccessful presidential opponent in 1952 and '56 to be a "real help."

Weather maps, below, give you the U. S. Weather Bureau's long-range forecast from now until mid-December. It is not a specific forecast in the usual sense, but an ESTIMATE of average temperatures and precipitation for the period.

Precipitation is expected to exceed normal over much of the nation in the next few weeks, much of it in the form of snow in western Lake region, Northern Plains and Rocky Mountain areas. Near-normal amounts of moisture are expected in the Pacific Northwest, the Southeast and Southern Plains states.

Temperatures below average seasonal normals will plague the western half of the nation until mid-December. The eastern third of the nation will experience above-normal temperatures, with New England getting much-above-normal treatment. Sandwiched in-between: a belt of near-normal temperatures.

Statistics Show Holiday Time Brings Flood of Unwanted Circulars

'Junk Mail' Is Still Weighty Problem

By LOIS WHITE

Are the personal letters, packages or monthly statements the postman places in your mailbox invariably interspersed with bargain offers, unasked-for merchandise catalogues, or coupons advertising various products?

Undoubtedly they are, because each home in the Salem area receives about 21 pieces of third class or "junk" mail in one month's time.

And, as the Christmas season draws nearer, the volume will increase to the point where 60 per cent of the total mail coming into the Post Office will be classified as junk.

USUALLY, 40 to 50 per cent of the mail in the postman's bag is junk, although during the summer months when folks are vacationing the percentage drops to a much lower figure. About mid-September the junk begins an upswing which continues to climb until December.

Statistics-wise, the heaviest period in 1956 — November to December — saw 195,295 pieces of junk handled by the Salem Post Office. From Sept. 21 to Oct. 18 of this year, the total of junk was about 204,611 pieces, according to Post Office figures.

Although most junk mail is promptly transmitted from mailbox to waste receptacle, it has become a headache to both the housewife and the letter carrier who finds himself in the position of being an advertising bill passer for 30 to 50 per cent of his time on the job.

Advertisers who want to emit circulars or bills inexpensively, promptly take advantage of the third class privilege since they have to pay only a 1½-cent rate per piece.

A MAJORITY OF the junk mail coming into the Salem office is from out-of-town, thereby disallowing revenue to come into the local office. But much of the junk is mailed from within the city itself, particularly around Christmas time when catalogues and other products advertisements are abundant.

Where do the advertisers garner the names and addresses of prospective junk mail recipients? The sources are gotten from any published compilation of names—such as club or tax lists, city directories, telephone books and the like.

IF JUNK MAIL is a bother to you, what can be done about eliminating its appearance in your daily mail intake? Not much but other than disposing of it in a waste basket.

But if junk you receive is marked "return postage guaranteed," or "form 3547 requested" and it is left unopened, then you may mark it "refused" and return it to the Post Office. The Post Office, in turn, will require the sender to pay for either the form or the piece of mail itself. There's a chance that the advertiser may scratch you from his list if this is done often enough.

Banana chunks, orange sections, apple slices, canned sliced pineapple and canned peach halves may all be dipped in fritter batter and deep-fat fried. Sprinkle with confectioner's sugar and serve hot as an accompaniment to baked ham or for dessert.

U. S. Planning To Produce More Helium

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government is planning a major expansion of its helium productive capacity to meet expanding needs in the missiles and other defense programs, it was learned today.

High-level planning also was reported under way to develop a comprehensive, long-range program aimed at future extraction of all possible helium from natural gas before it is used for fuel, with consequent waste forever of the helium content.

These developments were reported by Interior Department officials, who also said that recently printed designs of the Russian dog-carrying Sputnik showed that it contained a helium carrier. They said this may be an indication the Soviet Union is now producing helium in some quantity.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

They tell me that the State Department has declared wide sections of the South out of bounds for roving Russian diplomats. This puts the Soviet, striped - pants chap at a disadvantage. Now they'll have to take an airplane to Miami Beach instead of driving through countryside devoid of a nuclear plant which could turn out everything from atomic locomotives to nuclear space heat.

About the only advantage there is to keeping the Russians out of their diplomatic pouches won't be jammed with onion skin paper reports on how we talk a lot but do nothing.

For years industry has been screaming for the chance to keep the government out of the new cosmic and nuclear power field—yet very little is happening.

There are a dozen committees and sub-committees ready with plans—but no takers yet. They know just where they can produce the power, the fossil fuel, the sites and the labor force for such projects as ship and aircraft propulsion and space heating from atomic reactors for large central heating systems supplying a complex of buildings and users in heavily populated areas.

THE COUNCIL and its affiliates have plans for nuclear surface ships—the powering of tankers and merchant ships by nuclear engines. They have a design for atomic locomotives and aircraft and they talk of being able to help build a nuclear navy. They even have worked out methods to "launder" atomic-contaminated equipment.

One of these committees is the Southern Regional Educational Board which participated in the Work Conference on Nuclear Energy held last summer in St. Petersburg. This group reports: "In addition to power and fuel industries, atomic development will also have a significant impact upon a number of other industries.

"For instance, users of large quantities of energy either for power or for heat, such as the steel, aluminum, paper and pulp, petroleum and other industries, may be affected.

"Utilization of atomic energy by power companies, steel mills, ship and aircraft, etc., requires a host of components, controls, instruments, safety devices, boilers and heat exchangers, and a number of supporting industries.

"A full fledged atomic industry will out across practically all segments of the nation's industrial and business life."

After poring through reports I inquired around about what has been done. I learned that the South's first atomic power electric generating plant will be built at Parr Shoals, S. C.

THIS WILL COST at 17 million dollars—just about the take on a slow day at Las Vegas. The target date is 1962. I was told. So I checked with a couple of fellows who have been declared out of bounds in Siberia by the Russians. What were the Kremlin's plans for an area as large as the South and with its equivalent facilities?

The Russians' target date in the area which I discuss now is 1958-1960. In addition to other vast construction, the Russians report: "Twelve research institutes will be built within the system of the Siberian branch between 1958 and 1960. They are to include a mathematics institute with a computing center, institutes of theoretical and applied mechanics, nuclear physics, automation, tele-mechanics, geology, geophysics and non-organic chemistry."

"Siberian power resources are vast but its industry needs the help of science to progress more rapidly. Therefore, the government has decided to set up a Siberian Section of the Academy of Sciences, as well as the Sakhalinsky Complex Research Institute and the recently established Institute of Physics in Krasnoyarsk."

COMPARE ALL this with the slap-happy way we're doing it. Talk to those at the Southern Regional Advisory Council on Nuclear Energy, for example.

Talk to the officials of this Southern Regional Education Board which did a full study of the potential of nuclear development, using 2,000 persons who went through work sessions at Oak Ridge, Raleigh, and Aiken.

You'll find them loaded with plans but no plants. The Russians have both. If we don't begin competing, we may find ourselves the newest, biggest satellite some day. It's happened in other civilizations. It can happen here.

Banana Loaf Cake Is Fancy

Here's an easy "fancy" cake, rich as all get out and as easy as falling off a log.
Banana Loaf Cake with Cream Cheese Frosting
 One-half package (2 1/4 cups unsifted) instant banana cake mix, 1/2 cup plus 2 tablespoons water, 1 egg, unbeaten; cream cheese frosting.

tablespoons water, 1 egg, unbeaten.
 Spread sugar evenly in an 8x4x3-inch square pan; sprinkle with pineapple juice, nuts and cherries. Arrange pineapple spears on sugar mixture in an attractive design. Dot with butter. Set aside. Empty cake mix into small bowl. Add water and egg. Beat 2 minutes until smooth and creamy. Pour batter carefully over fruit mixture in pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 50 to 55 minutes. Cool cake in pan 5 minutes. Then invert on serving plate or tray. Let stand 1 minute before removing pan. Serve cake warm with whipped cream.

Serve The Stuffing As Separate Dish

Serve the Thanksgiving stuffing as a separate, outside dish. That's what Albert Stockli advises. Chef director of the noted Newarker restaurant at the Newark, N.J., airport, Stockli's fame for original ideas has spread all over the United States.

This liver stuffing is one of his Thanksgiving features. So are large cornucopias filled with fresh fruits, nuts and raisins, passed to guests by young American Indian girls.

Liver Knodel Stuffing
 Two pounds turkey liver, 2 pounds chicken liver, 4 diced onions, 1 tablespoon marjoram, 3 tablespoons poultry seasoning, 1 tablespoon salt, 2 sticks (1/2 pound) butter, 2 quarts milk, 2 eggs, 1 loaf white bread.

Saute 4 diced onions in 1/2 pound butter until a golden brown. Cut 1 loaf white bread into 1-inch cubes. Mix bread with onions and toast together. Grind 2 pounds turkey liver and 2 pounds chicken liver through meat grinder. Mix with bread and onions; let simmer together for 10 minutes. Beat 2 quarts milk and 8 eggs together. Add 3 tablespoons poultry seasoning, 1 tablespoon salt and 1 tablespoon marjoram. Beat well, pour the egg mixture over the bread, liver, and onions; mix thoroughly. Turn into large shallow pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 35 minutes. Spoon stuffing on plate. Cover with turkey.

Here is the genial Albert Stockli's menu for Thanksgiving dinner at the Newarker:

Thanksgiving Menu: Half grapefruit with sliced avocado, honey dressing, celery, homemade relishes, chicken gumbo creole, roast young tom turkey, with liver strudel stuffing, giblet gravy, whole stewed cranberry with citrus rind, minted fresh turnips, Brussels sprouts with chestnuts, sweet potato soufflé, tossed green salad with croutons, hot baked apple stuffed with plum pudding, pumpkin pie, Thanksgiving parfait, cornucopia of fresh fruit and nuts.

Mincemeat Cookies

Ingredients: 1 cup sifted flour, 1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder, 1/4 teaspoon baking soda, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/2 cup butter or margarine, 1 cup sugar, 1 tablespoon dark molasses, 1 egg, 1/2 cup moist mincemeat, 1 cup quick-cooking rolled oats, 1 cup chopped nutmeats.
 Method: Sift together the flour, baking powder, baking soda, salt, nutmeg, and cinnamon. Cream butter and sugar; beat in molasses and egg thoroughly. Stir in mincemeat. Add sifted dry ingredients and mix in. Add rolled oats and nutmeats; mix just until evenly distributed. Drop level tablespoons of the mixture, a couple of inches apart, onto a greased baking sheet. Bake in moderate (350) oven about 15 minutes or until baked through. Remove to wire rack with spatula. When cold, store in tightly covered container. Makes 3 1/2 to 4 dozen cookies.

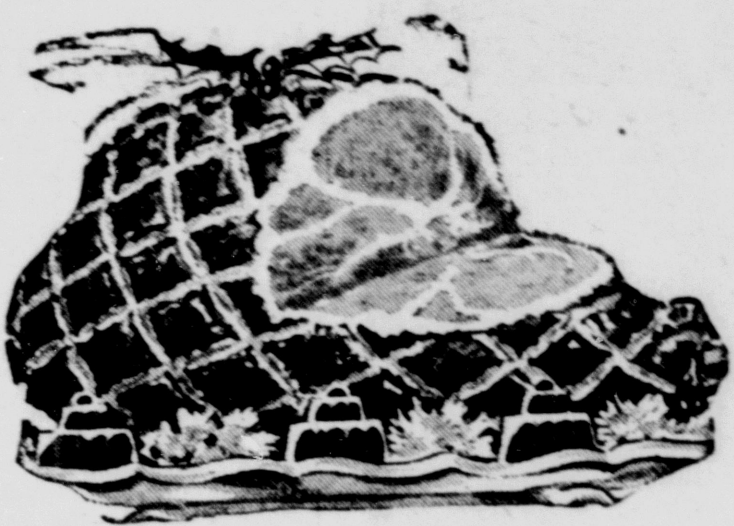

Celery Mushrooms

Ingredients: 3 cups diced celery, 1/2 cup diced onion, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup boiling water, 1 chicken bouillon cube, 5 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1/2 pound mushrooms (sliced), 1 teaspoon lemon juice, 2 tablespoons flour, milk, 1/2 pepper.

Method: Put celery, onion, salt and boiling water in a medium-sized saucepan; cover and bring to a boil; boil gently until tender. Drain, saving liquid; dissolve bouillon cube in liquid and reserve. Melt 3 tablespoons of the butter in a medium-sized skillet over moderately low heat; add sliced mushrooms and lemon juice; stirring often, cook until wilted. Drain mushrooms, adding any liquid in skillet to reserved liquid; add enough milk to make 1 1/4 cups. Melt the remaining 2 tablespoons of butter in a medium-sized saucepan over low heat; blend in flour and curry powder. Add vegetable liquid and milk mixture; cook and stir constantly over moderately low heat until thickened. Add celery mixture and mushrooms along with pepper to taste; reheat.

Vocados halves, served in their shells, are wonderfully good spring first course for a company dinner. Ever flavor a raisin-rice pudding with grated lemon rind instead of vanilla?

Fruit Salad with Avocados

One of the pleasantest ways to serve sliced leftover turkey is to accompany it with a fruit salad and hot bread.

A popular salad, and one that tastes delicious with cold turkey, is made from avocado, orange sections and seedless grapes. The salad dressing recipe is brand new and its flavor and texture recommends it. Do try it!

The hot bread for this lunch or supper meal is simple to prepare. We've come upon recipes of this sort often, but we were never convinced of their worth until we tasted this version. Chances are both grownups and small fry will love it.

Avocado Fruit Salad

Ingredients: 3 avocados, 3 oranges (sectioned membrane - free), small bunch seedless grapes, orange French dressing.

Method: Cut avocados in half lengthwise; remove pits. Arrange 6 or 7 orange sections in avocado halves with white grapes. Serve with Orange French Dressing. Makes 6 servings.

Note: If desired, avocados may be peeled and sliced; arrange slices on salad greens with orange sections and grapes.

Orange French Dressing

Ingredients: 1 can (6 ounces)

frozen concentrated orange juice, ¼ cup salad oil, ¼ cup cider vinegar, 3 to 4 tablespoons sugar, ½ teaspoon dry mustard, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon Tabasco sauce.

Method: Put undiluted orange juice concentrate, salad oil, vinegar, sugar, mustard, salt and Tabasco, in jar, bowl or bottle. Shake or beat until blended; or mix in electric blender. Dressing may be

Sesame Seed Cakes Are Japanese Food

In Kamakura, Japan, under the shadow of the great bronze Buddha, we enjoyed sesame seed cakes and tea. There in the quiet inn overlooking the shrine, a young woman in bright robe served us according to the traditional Japanese tea ceremony.

To recall the gracious details of that ceremony, we asked Miko Taka to refresh our memory. She is the lovely star of the forthcoming movie "Sayonara." A celebrated tea master of Japan taught her the etiquette of the tea cult which she demonstrates in a scene of the picture.

"Very sweet cakes are always served first, before a traditional cup of Japanese green tea is offered guests," she explained, adding, "That is because green tea is slightly bitter and the Japanese enjoy the subtle contrasts from sweet to bitter. Sugar is never used."

Sesame Seed Cakes

Two cups flour, ½ cup golden shortening, ½ cup sugar, ½ cup sesame seeds, ½ teaspoon baking powder, 2 eggs.

Sift flour and baking powder on pastry board. Stir a hollow in center and pour in sugar. Break in 1 egg and shortening. Using your fingers, gently work flour into mixture, until dough is formed. Add a very little water, if necessary. Knead dough gently in. Roll dough into long sausage about ½-inch thick in diameter, and with knife cut off ½-inch wide segments. Roll each piece into ball with palms of hands and press it flat into ¼-inch thick disc. Beat egg yolk and brush surface of each disc lightly with yolk. Drop discs, wet side down, upon sesame seeds. Press sesame seeds gently into dough. Brush surface lightly with egg white. Place discs on lightly greased baking pan, sesame seeds side up, and bake in moderate oven about 15 minutes. Serve this way or cut in four pieces.

Cooking fresh pears or peaches in a sugar syrup for a fruit compote? Be sure to add vanilla to the syrup when you take the fruit from the heat. Good flavor!

Try Raisin Pumpkin Cookies

Certainly, all experts admit good relationships between youngsters and parents are the strongest single factor in the battle against juvenile delinquency. Mayor Robert Wagner of New York, father of two growing sons, says, "Don't sell the bedtime snack short. It's a time for shared fun and private man-to-man talks."

Mom, of course, feels the same way. But she hopes the boys, big and little, will use paper plates and cups and dispose of them before leaving the kitchen. Save a wife and mother is a good family policy. Here's one mother's contribution to the father-and-son bedtime snacking.

Raisin-Pumpkin Crisps

One cup light or dark raisins, 1/2 cup butter or margarine, 1 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1/2 cup canned pumpkin, 1 1/4 cups sifted all-purpose flour, 1/4 teaspoon cloves, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon ginger, 3/4 teaspoon nutmeg, 1/4 teaspoon cloves, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1/2 cup coarsely chopped nuts.

Rinse and drain raisins. Cream butter and sugar thoroughly. Add unbeaten egg and beat until well blended. Stir in pumpkin. Sift together flour, salt, soda and spices,

Borscht Is Pacific Coast In Attitude

A city with cosmopolitan population usually has extra good food. That's true about San Francisco. This borscht is one delicious example — Russian in origin, Pacific coast in attitude.

Tomato Borscht

Three cups water, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 1 1/2 pounds boneless stewing veal cut in 2-inch cubes, 1 marrow bone, 1 teaspoon pepper, 1/4 teaspoon dried rosemary, 3 tablespoons instant minced onion or 1/4 cup finely chopped raw onion, 1 (10 1/2-ounce) can condensed tomato soup, 1 (1-pound) can tomatoes, 1 finely chopped clove garlic, 1 cup thinly sliced carrots, 5 cups shredded cabbage (about 1 1/2 pounds), 3 tablespoons lemon juice, 1 tablespoon brown sugar, 1/4 cup finely chopped fresh parsley, 1/2 cup white wine or water.

Heat water to boiling; add salt, veal and marrow bone. Cover and cook for 10 minutes on high heat; reduce heat. Add pepper, rosemary, onion, tomato soup, tomatoes and garlic. Cover and simmer until meat is nearly tender — about 45 minutes. Add carrots, cabbage, lemon juice, sugar and parsley. Continue cooking over low heat until carrots and cabbage are tender — about 20 minutes. Just before serving, add wine or water.

Food Hints

Caviar is the prepared roe of certain kinds of fish. Caviar from sturgeon varies in color from grey to black and is smaller than the famous and expensive beluga caviar.

Small fry enjoy a combination of peanut butter and honey in a sandwich or as a spread for toast.

Homebaked Parker House Rolls

When we were young, Parker House rolls from the bakery ordered for special occasions, were the height of culinary glamor.

Recently we tried our hand at making the rolls and when we served them hot with butter and other spreads, they were much enjoyed. Good as these rolls are, however, their texture and appearance differs from the bakery product — so don't expect a facsimile of those bought.

Parker House Rolls

Ingredients: $\frac{3}{4}$ cup milk, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sugar, $2\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoons salt, $4\frac{1}{2}$ tablespoons shortening, $\frac{3}{4}$ cup of warm (105 to 115 degrees) water, 1 package active dry yeast, $4\frac{1}{2}$ cups sifted flour (about), butter or margarine (melted).

Method: Scald milk; stir in sugar, salt and shortening; cool to lukewarm. Measure warm water into a large mixing bowl; sprinkle in yeast; stir until dissolved. Stir in lukewarm milk mixtures. Add half the flour; beat until smooth; stir in remaining flour. Turn the dough out on lightly floured board; knead until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl; brush top with melted butter; cover with a clean towel. Let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk — about 1 hour. Punch down dough and turn out on lightly floured board; divide dough in half. Roll out each half into a 9-inch circle; cut with a round $2\frac{1}{2}$ inch cookie cutter. Crease each round a little off center with dull edge of knife; brush lightly with melted butter. Fold larger side over smaller so edges just meet; press to seal; place on greased baking sheet about 1 inch apart; cover. Let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk — about 1 hour. Brush lightly with melted butter. Bake in hot (400 degrees) oven about 15 minutes. Makes $2\frac{1}{2}$ dozen rolls.

Man With $9 Million Check Can't Pay Fine

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Although he had a paycheck for nine million dollars, John N. Bachman couldn't pay a $25 speeding fine Tuesday night.

In fact, it wasn't until Bachman, a technical writer, tried to use it to pay the fine that he noticed his check was for $9,000,028.65. Bachman took it back to the Columbus cab company which had issued it for him for some part-time work.

After the company made a deduction, Bachman had $28.65 ... and the $25 fine yet to pay.

Keep small poultry pins on hand for use with roast duck. Insert the pins from one side of the vent to the other and then lace the opening lightly with string. It's not necessary to truss the duck.

Vermouth Wonderful Cooking Ingredient

Vermouth, actually an herb sherry in a bottle, is a wonderful ingredient in cooking.

We asked Jack Tribune of Harrison, N.Y., an amateur chef and Yale graduate with Italian ancestry, for good recipes. He said these two are favorites of his wife and daughter.

Veal Birds a la Richard

One and one-half pounds veal cutlets, sliced thin; 4 slices prosciutto ham, cut in slivers; 4 slices American bread, broken in soft crumbs; 1 tablespoon parsley, minced; 2 eggs, tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese, 1 tablespoon olive oil, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sweet vermouth, salt and pepper to taste.

Flatten out cutlets very thin and cut them into pieces 4 inches long. In a bowl put bread crumbs, prosciutto, cheese, parsley, eggs, salt, pepper and mix well. On each piece of veal put a sprinkle of salt and a smear of butter, and then spread on the above mixture. Roll each slice individually and fasten each roll with a toothpick. In a large frying pan heat the remaining butter and olive oil; put in the rolls and cook on a high flame until well browned on all sides. Then lower flame, add $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sweet vermouth and cover tightly. Let simmer until meat is tender (for about 15 to 20 minutes). Remove the veal birds from the pan and place them in a serving dish. Add the $\frac{1}{4}$ cup of sweet vermouth to pan gravy and let come to boil. Pour over veal rolls, serve immediately.

Flets of Flounder a la Mollere

One and one-half pounds filets of flounder, 2 tablespoons butter, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon pepper, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, 2 bay leaves, crushed; $\frac{1}{4}$ cup melted butter, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup dry vermouth.

In a large buttered baking dish that has a cover, place filets in a single layer and sprinkle with salt, pepper, bay leaves and parsley. Then add melted butter and $\frac{1}{4}$ cup dry vermouth. Cover baking dish and bake in a medium oven for 25 minutes. Remove filets to serving plate. To gravy in baking dish, add 1 teaspoonful flour and the remaining $\frac{1}{4}$ cup dry vermouth. Cook 2 minutes, pour gravy over filets and serve. Lemon juice can be added, if desired.

HONORED AT CELEBRATION

LONDON (AP)—The younger members of the Churchill clan danced until after dawn today to celebrate the marriage of 22-year-old Sally Churchill.

But the greatest of the family—Sir Winston—confessed that he didn't have the stamina for such a marathon party anymore. The elder statesman, 83 on Nov. 30, retired after seeing that the fun was well started. It lasted until 8 a.m.

Sally, great-niece of Sir Winston, was married to 34-year-old Colin Crew, an insurance broker, Tuesday.

Questions and Answers

Q — What are the walking habits of the gorillas?
A — As a rule they walk on all fours, leaning on their knuckles. Occasionally, they will stand upright and walk a short distance. In running, they pace — that is, the leg and the arm on each side move together.

U.S. to Launch New Nuclear Merchant Ship

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States will launch a nuclear-powered merchant ship in 1959.

A $20,908,744 contract for construction of the vessel was awarded Tuesday to the New York Shipbuilding Corp. of Camden, N.J.

A joint announcement by the Maritime Administration and the Atomic Energy Commission said the atomic propulsion system would be supplied by Babcock & Wilcox Co. under a separate contract with AEC for another nine million dollars.

The ship, to be named the NS (for nuclear ship) Savannah, is to be 587 feet long, have a beam of 78 feet, a service speed of 20 knots and a deadweight tonnage of 10,190 tons, the announcement said.

Congress authorized construction of the vessel in July 1956 after President Eisenhower proposed the launching as a demonstration of U.S. determination to develop peaceful applications for atomic energy.

The announcement said the NS Savannah will be an ultramodern ship with facilities for visitors' tours and "will serve as a floating laboratory to study and experiment in the relationship of nuclear power to the requirements of commercial shipping."

UN Approves Plan to Enlarge Arms Group

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. General Assembly has endorsed the West's efforts to keep disarmament talks going, but a new Soviet boycott threat promises complete breakdown of the perennially deadlocked negotiations.

A Western plan to increase the 12-nation Disarmament Commission to 25 members was approved 60-9 Tuesday. Four Communist nations and three neutrals would be included under the plan.

The Assembly rejected 38-19 a Communist proposal to enlarge the commission to 32 nations, half of them communist or neutralist.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov declared the Soviet Union would refuse to take part in any more meetings of the Disarmament Commission unless its 32-member plan was accepted.

Kuznetsov said Russia also ruled out any negotiations on the basis of the Assembly resolution last week endorsing the West's last arms proposals as a starting point for the future negotiations.

American sources predicted that after their public stand, the Russians would quietly join the East-West negotiations.

Other diplomats were less optimistic. Some felt the Assembly's action spelled the final collapse of the arms talks, which have been dragging on since 1954 in the commission and its five-nation subcommittee.
